MYSTERY IN TRAGIC DEATH OF MILROY WOMAN IS UNSOLVED

Mrs. Joshua Grace is Found Dead on Kitchen Floor Sunday Morning, Her Head Close to Fire.

FIRES STARTED IN TWO ROOMS

Her Husband is Overcome in Adjoining Bedroom From Effects of Gas Which Was Turned on.

CORONER IS INVESTIGATING

Mr. Grace, Former Druggist, in Critical Condition and Unable to Give Coherent Statement.

Mystery surrounds the death of Mrs. Sarah Grace, wife of Joshua Grace, former Milroy druggist, whose dead body was found in the kitchen of her home in Milroy Sunday morning at eight o'clock. She was lying on the floor, her head, which was badly burned, only a few inches from a lighted gas connection which had been pulled from the kitchen hot plate.

Mr. Grace was lying on the bed in an adjoining room unconscious from the effects of escaping gas, when neighbors broke into the house. Mr. Grace was partially revived in a few hours, but not sufficiently to make coherent statement of the events of the night. His condition today was still regarded as critical and there was said to be some doubt about his recovery.

He was almost asphyxiated from the gas which had been turned on in the bedroom. The rubber hose connection on the heating stove was pulled loose before the gas was turned on.

Gas was turned on and lighted in the room west of the kitchen and north of the bedroom. Holes about a foot square were burned in the floor in the kitchen and the room to the west, and the woodwork in both scorched. The mantle in the west room was burned away and a lamp which was sitting on it fell to the floor.

Whether the tragedy was the result of a suicide pact may never be known. It is stated that Mr. Grace, when he regained partial consciousness, acted as if he might have been suffering from an overdose of morphine, in addition to being overcome by gas.

It is not believed that Mrs. Grace met death by burning because it would be a physical impossibility to lie down before a fire and burn to death. There are said to be no marks on Mrs. Grace's body to indicate that she was killed by a blow and dragged in front of the fire.

Decision as to whether a post-mortem should be held over the body of Mrs. Grace was withheld pending further investigation of the case by the county coroner, Dr. John M. Lee. Dr. Lee reached the Grace home about eleven o'clock yesterday morning and soon afterward Mrs. Grace's body was removed to E. O. Anderson's undertaking establishment in Milroy.

Dr. Lee spent the remainder of the day in Milroy holding an inquest and went back this morning to take further testimony. He was expected today to question Paul Grace, the only child of the victims of the tragedy, who arrived from Chicago this morning and was expected to throw some further light on the mystery. No coroner's verdict was in prospect today because of the various angles of the case which had to be investigated.

Mrs. Grace's face was horribly burned, but not beyond recognition. Her clothing was not even scorched. She wore nightclothing and had her hair fixed as if ready to retire, but persons who were among the first in the house said that the bed did not indicate that she had ever lain down beside her husband.

Although the heat in the house was intense when neighbors broke in, the fire had not gained much headway and was easily extinguished. The two gas fires evidently had not been burning long or they would have caused more damage than they did. The intensity of the heat was disclosed by the fact that four tall candles in candlesticks sitting on the mantle in the bedroom, were melted down and two of them fell to the floor.

Mrs. Wilbur Meek, who lives west across the street from the Grace home, saw smoke coming from the house, which caused an investigation to be made. John Kinnett and Mr. Meek were among the persons who broke into the house and made the discovery. Mr. Grace was taken to the Meek home and was still being treated there today.

Mr. Grace sold the drug store which he ran in Milroy under the name of the Grace Drug company, to Dallas Copper, a few days ago, having purchased the store of Mr. Copper about two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Grace moved to Milroy at that time from Chicago.

Neighbors said that Mr. Grace had planned to leave for Chicago yesterday morning and that Mrs. Grace was to join him later. They had sold practically all of their household goods, preparatory to leaving, and a trunk and suit case had been packed.

Many people were found in Milroy yesterday who recalled that Mrs. Grace was morose and melancholy, and apparently was in ill health. It was reported that she had confided in friends that she had seen her son killed by a horse seventeen years ago, and that the tragedy had affected her deeply. It was also stated by neighbors that there had been a family of five children, only one of which survives.

It was the general belief in Milroy that Mr. Grace has met with financial reverses during his two years stay in Milroy. His age is believed to be about 68 years and his wife was thought to be several years younger. It was impossible to learn these facts from Mr. Grace on account of his dazed condition.

PROMINENT FRUIT MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Thomas T. Newby, Who Won Many Prizes During Life, Expires of Apoplexy at Carthage

FUNERAL TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.

Thomas T. Newby, age eighty-four years, well known fruit grower of near Carthage died at three o'clock Saturday afternoon of apoplexy. Mr. Newby was in good health and had been working in his prize orchard. Upon returning to the house, he dropped dead. Mr. Newby won many prizes with the apples which he produced. He had many medals, both gold and silver, having taken prizes at Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco. He was the first man to successfully raise the Orange watermelon in this part of the country and was also the originator of the famous Newby apple.

Besides the widow he is survived by one daughter, Miss Sarah Newby. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the Friends church in Carthage and burial will be made at Riverside cemetery.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS

The grand jury, which was called into session last Wednesday, adjourned Saturday evening until Wednesday morning, when hearings will be resumed.

ABANDONMENT IS CHARGED

Carrie Avery of This City Files Suit for a Divorce.

Mrs. Carrie Avery of this city has filed suit in the circuit court against Harvey Avery, charging abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges that he abandoned her while they were living in Danville, Ill., January 11, 1917. The plaintiff alleges he was a continual and habitual user of intoxicating liquor and spent his money on spees, making it necessary for her to work for other people for a living. He called her vile and infamous names, the complaint says. They were married November 20, 1909. There are no children.

GOODRICH INVITES RUSH CO. FARMERS

To Attend the State Wide Live Stock Rally at Tomlinson Hall This Week

GOOD SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM

County Agent Detrick is Expecting a Large Delegation From This County to Attend

Governor Goodrich has sent out a large number of special invitations to Rush County farmers to attend the state wide livestock rally which will be held in the Tomlinson Hall, Indianapolis, March 20. The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. and there will be on the program men of national reputations.

G. I. Christie, assistant secretary of agriculture and Thos. E. Wilson, president of the Wilson Packing Co. of Chicago will speak on the relation of the packer to the livestock producer. A. J. Glover of Wisconsin, editor of Hoard's Dairyman, will speak on the part the dairy industry will play in the agriculture of the future. Walter L. Hauser, president of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeder's Association, and a prominent breeder, will discuss the part livestock organizations can play in the improvement of livestock.

Governor Frank A. Lowden of Illinois will also be one of the principal speakers.

The annual meetings of the Indiana State Dairy Association, Indiana Guernsey Breeder's Association, Indiana Jersey Cattle Club, Indiana Holstein-Friesian Association, and the Indiana Herford, Shorthorn and Angus Breeders' Associations will be held the day before the rally. The executive committee of the Indiana Livestock Breeders' Association will also meet on the same day.

All are expected to remain for the next day's rally. County Agent Detrick is hoping to have a large delegation from this county attend the rally.

Chairman M. E. Foley of the Indiana State Council of Defense has requested that those who assisted Indiana in meeting the food production requirements of the federal government, during the recent emergency, attend and encourage the object of the state live stock rally, the promulgation of a program of a greater and better production of live stock, in the state, as a means to permanent agricultural prosperity. Mr. Foley's appeal to the defense workers in this connection says:—

"Patriotism in Indiana was a very practical thing. Of all the home enterprises none stands out so conspicuously successful as that made by the farmers of the state. They were asked to produce more wheat and the wheat was forthcoming. They were asked to raise more hogs and the hogs were raised. They were asked to do these things when labor was the scarcest thing in the country."

RADICALS MAY CONTROL GERMANY

Heartened by Failure of Government to Stamp Out Spartacans, Plan to Proclaim Soviet Republic

ELEMENTS ARE ALL UNITING

Government Unable to Capture Revolutionists and at Same Time Guard Large Berlin Area

(By United Press.)

Stockholm, Mar. 17.—Martial law has been extended to the district near Berlin according to reports from that city today. The city was comparatively quiet Saturday night, it was said. A majority of the 15,000 insurgents were reported to have fled from Berlin to Brunswick.

Berlin, Mar. 17.—German radicals heartened by the failure of the government to completely stamp out the Spartacan uprising, are planning to proclaim establishment of a Soviet republic next month.

While the cabinet continues to struggle with the Spartacans and tries to untangle the apparently hopeless food, industrial and political problems, radical elements are uniting in perfecting their revolutionary program. They are confident that they will win from the exhausted government.

Even the government officials are beginning to admit the cabinet's position is seriously threatened. Although the government has by no means suffered military defeat, its troops have not succeeded in surrounding the Spartacans who are resisting desperately and cleverly. The government so far has not been able to master enough troops to capture the Spartacans and at the same time effectively guard the large Berlin area.

It has become evident that a large number of Spartacans who escaped from Berlin are stirring up further trouble in outlying districts. Regardless of any claims which may

FLOOD WATER HOLDS STATIONARY TODAY

Many Believe Danger Will Pass if no More Rain Falls Though River is Near 1916.

FEW FAMILIES READY TO MOVE

The last two days and nights of rainfall have raised the water in the river until the bottom lands are completely covered. It was thought by some that if the water continued to rise in the next twenty-four hours as it has in the past few hours, it would be necessary for many families along the river to move from their homes in order to be out of danger. It can well be remembered the amount of suffering the flood of 1913 brought to this and other communities and many have been wondering if this recent rainfall would be a repetition of that time. The water had ceased to rise a few inches and it is thought that there will be little danger although it is within a few inches of the high water mark at this time in 1916. At that time many families in the lower parts of the city were forced to move from their homes to be free from the water.

A resident of this city recalled this morning that 68 years ago the water was at about the same stage that it is today. It was necessary to cross the river at that time in a canoe to reach a neighbors home. Many families were making hasty preparations late last night and this morning to move from their homes to be out of danger but since the water has ceased to rise there is little danger of a repetition of the flood of six years ago.

PASSES BOGUS CHECK FOR $5

Donald S. Cupier Obtains Money at Candy Kitchen and Leaves

Donald S. Cupier, who passed a check for $5 at Charles J. Caron's candy kitchen yesterday, with no funds in the bank, evidently left Rushville last night because the police were unable to find any trace of him this morning.

The check was on the Rushville National bank and was signed by Cupier. He had never at any time had Cupier's name. He had never had an account at the bank. Cupier procured two blank checks on the Rushville bank at the Arcade pool room and it is probable that he passed another piece of bogus paper before leaving.

FINAL ACTION ON TREATY DUE TODAY

Preliminary Pact, to All Intents a Final One, Will be Presented to Germans About Mar. 25

SEPARATE TREATIES FOLLOW

French Foreign Minister's Statement League Will Not be Included Brings Denial From Wilson

(By United Press.)

Paris, Mar. 17.—Final action on the military terms of the preliminary peace treaty with Germany was to be taken by the supreme war council this afternoon.

The treaty will be presented to the Germans about March 25, according to general opinion today.

While the forthcoming treaty with Germany is termed preliminary, it is to all intents and purposes final.

It fixes that country's military and naval status, defines its boundaries and disposes of the questions of reparation and economic freedom. It will not be really effective, however, until it is ratified by all on a fixed percentage of the signatory nations. The period for ratification by the allied nations may be at least 40 to 60 days. This will give an opportunity for the calling of a special session of the American congress thus enabling the senate to act. Germany probably will be given a much shorter period in which to accept the terms.

Following this preliminary peace with Germany there will be separate treaties with Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria; then the general treaty which will clean up all loose ends, co-ordinate the separate pacts, establish any remaining interallied boundaries, etc.

Foreign Minister Pichon's claim that the league of nations will not be included in the preliminary peace treaty was emphatically denied today in American official circles.

President Wilson and other American commissioners insist on its inclusion, it was stated.

It was a surprise that Pichon should hold views to the contrary. The president, it is known, intends to make a strong attempt for the inclusion of the league. He said that France and Great Britain needed the league even more than America.

Early peace is desired by President Wilson and he holds that inclusion of the league in the pact is vital to America.

Pichon yesterday declared that although the fundamental principles of the final peace are laid down in the preliminary treaty, the league of nation probably will not be included. He said that Wilson had not asked that it be included. The preliminary peace, according to Pichon, will end the state of war but will not permit Germany to resume full relations with other countries. The blockade will not be lifted completely before the final treaty, he added.

UNPARDONABLE SIN HEART CONDITION

Evangelist Miller Declares it is Knowingly and Intelligently Resisting God's Truth

SUNDAY BIG DAY AT REVIVAL

Inspiring Talks at Sunday School and Epworth League Results in Several Confessions

Yesterday was a great day at the St. Paul's M. E. church and in spite of the inclemency of the weather, good congregations attended all of the church services and a number of people took their first step toward the Christian life in response to Evangelist Miller's invitation.

The evangelist preached two masterful sermons, one at the morning and one at the evening service, in the morning taking for his text, "The Supreme Sacrifice," and in the evening, "The Unpardonable Sin," and gave inspiring talks at Sunday school and Epworth League, each of which resulted in several confessions.

The morning service was what the evangelist called a "Reconsecration Service" and his plea was for his hearers to make the "supreme sacrifice" and lay their all on the altar of God. He pleaded with the audience not to withhold anything in offering themselves to God.

"You can stop up all of the holes in a boat but one and yet that boat will sink in spite of all of the pumps you may have," he said. "Don't when you give yourselves to God, try to hang on to one or two for your old sins but give your all—say 'Lord, here are my hands, my feet, my talents, my money, my service, my all.'"

"A Question for Scoffers, Skinflints and Skeptics," is the subject of the sermon that the evangelist announced for this evening, the first meeting of the last week of the revival services.

Last night, preceding the sermon, a beautiful duet, "In the Garden," was rendered by Mrs. Neff Ashworth and Dr. Frank Sparks.

"There is a sin unto death and

TO RECEIVE BIDS ON CEMENT ROADS APR. 7

County Commissioners to Let Contracts For Powers and Weir Permanent Highway

ALSO PECK MACADAM ROAD

Before adjourning late Saturday afternoon, the county commissioners decided to receive bids on the John H. Power cement road north of Rushville, the John R. Weir cement highway in Noble township and the Lafayette Peck macadam road in Orange township, on Monday, April 7, and ordered the county auditor to advertise for bidders.

The Weir cement road will join up with the Capp cement road which runs to the Rushville-Noble township line, and the Powers road will begin at the end of the brick pavement in North Main street and run to the Jackson township line.

The commissioners also will receive bids on April 7 on the contract for pointing up the stone work on the court house and calking the windows. The plans and specifications will be drawn by the county surveyor, Frank Catt, and will be on file in the auditor's office.

The board reappointed the old viewers, Leroy Lines and Charles D. Alter, to make a new estimate for the Hungerford road on the Walker Rushville township line. The road was advertised for Saturday but no bids were received because the pre-war estimate was too low.

AUSTRIA'S PRESS MADE MONEY FAST

War Finances Made the World Wonder But They Were Simple After all.

MINISTER VOUCHES TRUTH.

One of Best Vienna Financial Schemes an Intricate Machine for Printing Notes

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, Feb. 5. (By Mail).—Austria's flighty war finances have made the world wonder, but they were simple after all, as after the war stories reveal. The Hapsburg regime just "made money" to fight the war.

The Czecho-Slovak minister of finance vouches for the truth of the following enlightening explanations of how Austria's treasury kept supplied, though taxes in the dual monarchy were less during the war than in peace time, according to Minister Rasin.

One of the best Vienna financial schemes was a very intricate and speedy machine for printing war notes, which of course were the only money used in the Hapsburg empire during the war. Silver was unseen, and gold unheard of.

This elaborate and fast printing machine was in a public building in Vienna, and when the revolution broke and shooting took place outside the building, the employees in charge of the money machine fled in a hurry. Electrically operated the machine continued to run, and no one knew how to stop it.

It printed enormous quantities of new notes, according to the Czecho-Slovak minister, before someone finally stopped it by throwing a wrench into the mechanism.

Another Austrian finance ruse was to offer soldiers five days' permission for a hundred crown subscription to the war loan. This succeeded in stimulating investments to such an extent in the army that the offer had to be withdrawn.

Due to the shaky war finances, the crown is so low in value today that it is almost valueless as exchange, except for people going into the dual monarchy's area. A dollar will buy more than 20 crowns inside Austria. The actual value of a crown is estimated as low as three cents, but it is exchanged at higher value.

RUSH COUNTY FARMERS

try. Herein lay the farmer's self sacrifice.

"Now that he has found a new avenue to prosperity, even without the stimulus of war time buying, the farmer is not going to abandon the intensive cultivation of his acres, nor the profit that comes from the scientific production of live stock.

gesting that they serve their own interests by joining in this movement for making Indiana the greatest live stock producing state in the union. They can make no better start in this direction than being present for the rally, in Indianapolis March 20th."

LOAN WORKERS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Earl H. Payne, County Chairman, Says That Rush County Will be Represented at Chicago

SECRETARY GLASS TO SPEAK

Earl H. Payne, who last week was appointed county chairman for the Victory Liberty loan campaign which opens April 21, announced today that Rush county would be represented at the seventh district federal reserve conference in Chicago Friday when organization plans will be discussed. Mr. Payne said that he would attend the conference and that Lon Link, T. M. Green, Will M. Sparks, Theodore Heeb and Mrs. A. L. Stewart or Miss Anna Bohannon might be present. Other bankers from the county and some township workers may also attend, he said.

The loan workers from throughout the district will meet at the LaSalle hotel at 11 a. m. and a buffet luncheon will be served at noon. In the afternoon the state organizations will meet and in the evening at 6:30 a banquet will be served, at which Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, will speak.

MACHINE HITS BUGGY

Wherle Lakin and Bert Dell figured in an accident in East Eleventh street Saturday night which resulted in little damage and no injury to any of the occupants. Mr. Lakin was driving a machine which struck Mr. Dell's buggy and the front wheel and single tree of the buggy were damaged to some extent, but the machine was not hurt. Mrs. Dell and child were in the buggy.

DO NOT BE TROUBLED BY BIG SHOE BILLS

Fifteen months of service from a pair of Neolin Soles is claimed by F. T. Evans of Seattle, Washington. "Then I had them half-soled and they are still good," says Mr. Evans.

Big shoe bills do not trouble the man who gets wear like this from his shoes. If you are interested in cutting down your shoe expense, be sure that the shoes you buy have Neolin Soles.

You can get them on new shoes in any styles for men, women, and children; and they are available everywhere for re-soles, too.

Neolin Soles are made by Science to give long wear, and to be comfortable and waterproof. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also manufacture Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Spivey Wants To Tell You About

Gasoline Engines. Yes, I have them from one and one-half horse power up to any size you want. When you buy one of these engines you know you are getting the best on the market.

Then when it comes to a One-Row Cultivator, did you ever see the one I am selling? If you did not, be sure and see it. You never saw one similar to it, for it is in a class all alone—nothing like it, nothing nearly the same. You want to see this One-Row Cultivator before you buy yours; and then again, my Two Row Cultivator has so many features that no other two-rows has, that you want to know about it. It will appeal to you all right. But I am ahead of my story.

Corn Planters come before Cultivators, and if I don't show you the best Corn Planter you ever saw, with more good features on it than all the other planters combined, then you blame me for it. I have the Planter that is perfect and the only one I ever saw that any one can plant corn with. And again, I am ahead of my story.

I should have told you about Disc Harrows and Soil Pulverizers. You can't plant corn without getting the ground in perfect condition, and to do that you must have a Disc Harrow, and above all, a Soil Pulverizer—the best tool the farmer ever used. Cultivate your wheat with a Soil Pulverizer and it will pay for itself in the increase of the yield. Ask the man who uses one.

Now, the Good Wife will say, if you buy all these tools, what can I buy to help me. And I have figured this all out for you. You need a Primrose Cream Separator that will save your cream and make you more money from your cows, and perhaps save you some. Good idea, is it not?

And, by the way, what about a Manure Spreader, you have the manure, and why not spread it. I can also rig you out to spread your straw. You want to get all you can out of your land, and I want to help you do it, and a Manure Spreader is what it takes.

And a good Wagon is very essential to a good farmer, and every farmer knows what a Webber Wagon is—that is the kind I sell. Good judgment, isn't it?

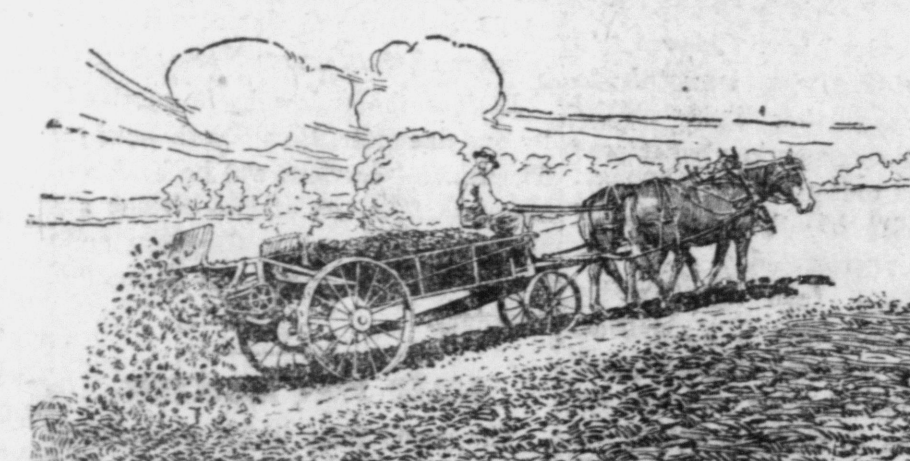

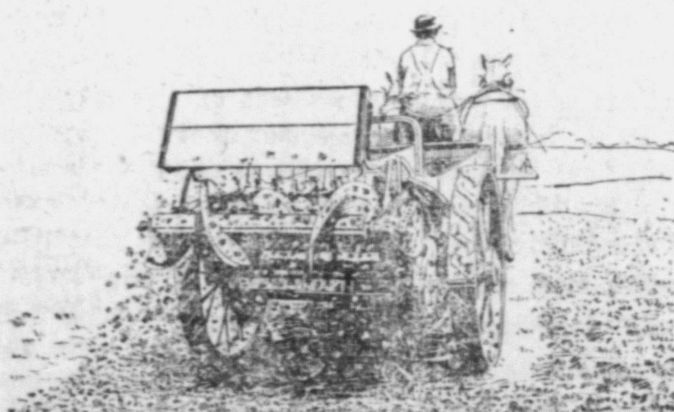

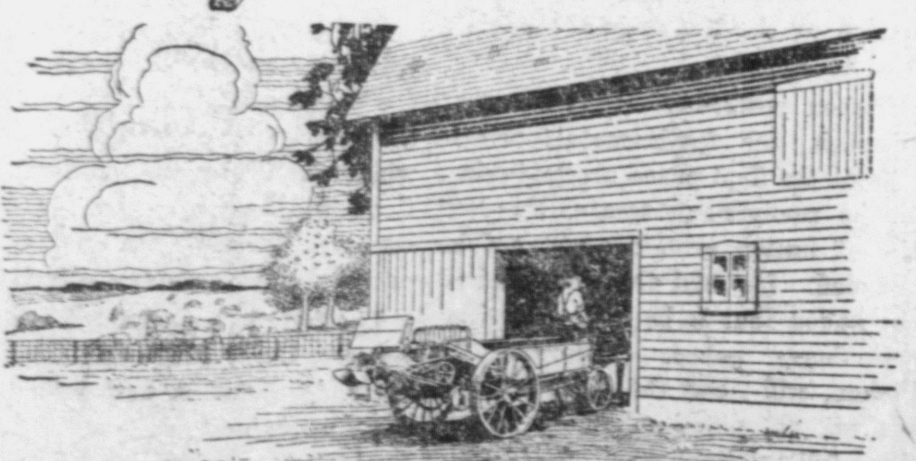

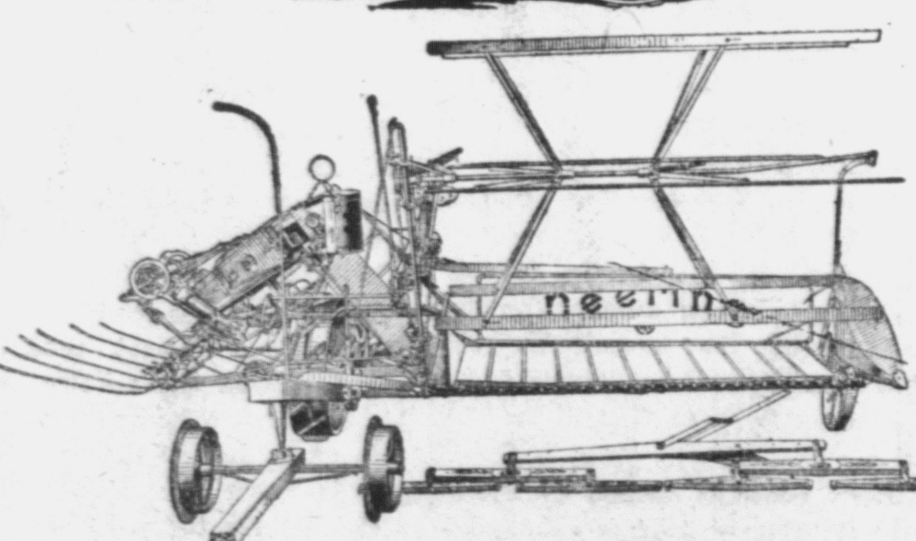

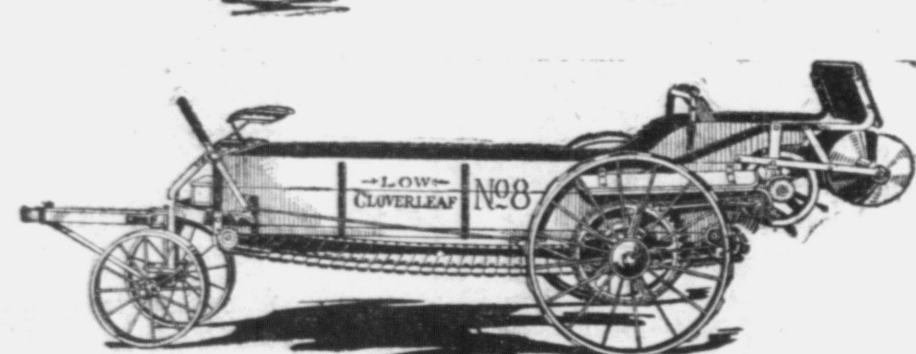

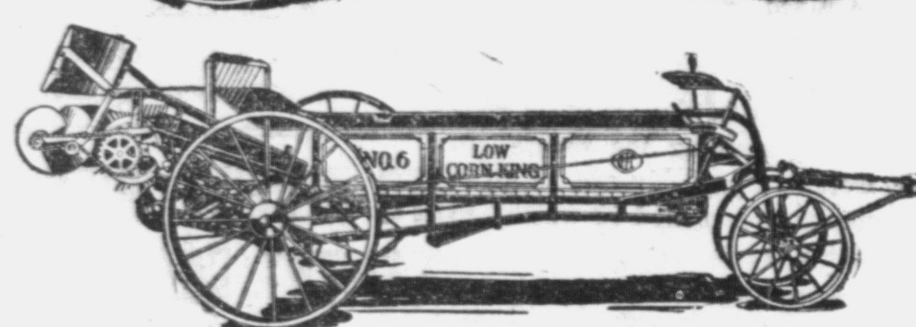

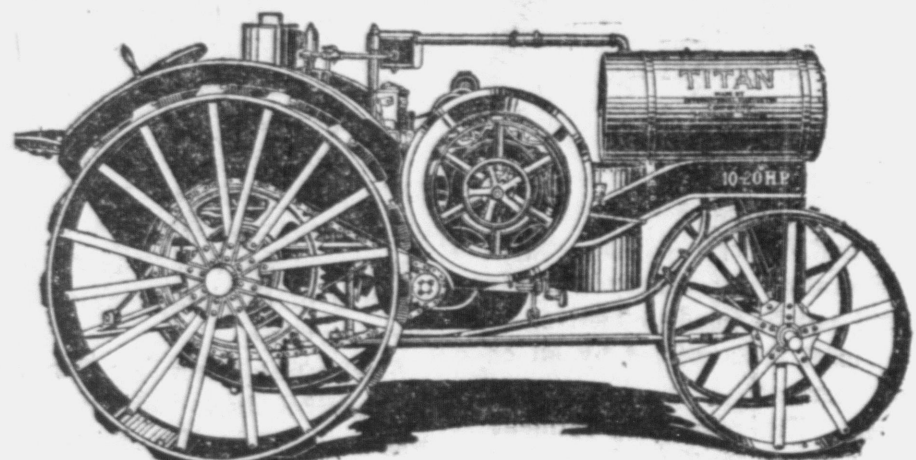

But I forgot to tell you about my Repair Department. If you want repairs for your Binder or Mower or any other machine, see me. I have what you want. Remember—You want what you want when you want it.

And don't forget that you have been thinking about that Tractor to do your breaking and to get your ground in order. I have two kinds—the Titan and the International. The Titan was never beaten in a contest and when you see the International, you will know why I took the agency. It's a Dandy.

I also have the McCormick and Deering Binders and Mowers, and all kinds of Hay Tools, but then I will take that up a little later. Don't forget the McCormick and Deering Binder Twine, or the Motor Truck of different sizes to do your hauling with. And by the way, when I was talking about Gas Engines, I forgot to say that you will want a Grinder, too.

In other words this store is for the Farmer, and I want every farmer in Rush County to be in this store. I have been dealing with the farmers of Rush county all my life and I know that they appreciate Service—and that is what I am going to give you. And in order to do this, I must have a volume of business in order to keep a machine expert here to look after your machinery troubles and it also takes lots of business to keep prices down, and I believe you are going to appreciate what I am doing for you and I know that I will appreciate your cooperation.

The Mistake is Made by Many Rushville Citizens

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Rushville resident tells you how.

Frank McFarland, 830 W. Tenth St., says: "My kidneys began to get weak and in a short time I was so bad off I could hardly get about. My back was in terrible shape. It ached so, especially at night that I could hardly sleep. Mornings my back was so stiff that when I bent over, I could hardly straighten again. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and highly colored. Another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results, I thought I would try them, so I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They helped me right away and I kept on using them until I was cured."

 be made by government agencies, Germany is rapidly becoming converted to Sovietism as the result of radical propaganda and agitations. It is now proposed that the upper legislative house be abolished and a new Soviet congress established in its place, representing all working groups.

The people, following custom, believe or disbelieve these stories according to with which faction they are in sympathy. Regardless of any claims which may be made by the government agencies, Germany is rapidly becoming converted to sovietism, as a result of the radical propaganda and agitation. At the beginning of this year the vast majority of Germans was strongly opposed to the soviets on the ground that such organizations signified

Bolshevism. This idea is changing, especially as the radicals have advocated equal representation of employers in all soviets, regardless of their numerical inferiority. It is now proposed that the bundesrat (upper legislative house) be abolished and a new soviet congress established in its place, representing all working groups. This would provide representation for the people according to their social status, while the reichstag would represent them according to localities.

Supporters of such an organization are growing rapidly. The government may provide for it in it's constitution, hoping thus to avoid the April revolution, but there is a possibility that the radicals—confident they have the upper hand—will demand even more, although their program of government changes has not been made public. It is known however, that the radicals believe it is necessary for the workers to exercise direct control over all industries. They fear otherwise that many industries will remain idle, as the capitalists are not eager to reopen their factories, in view of their impending socialization.

The Seventeen-year Locust

The seventeen-year locust, an insect extremely interesting to naturalists, but thoroughly detested by nurserymen and owners of orchards is due to appear in this county in large number during 1919.

The real name of this insect is the periodical cicada. It spends seventeen years slowly developing underground in infested localities. Its emergence in such localities every seventeen years has been observed in this country every seventeen years since 1715.

Enormous swarms will appear in parts of the northern states either in the last week of May or the first week of June. No one can fail to recognize their presence in the given localities, for they are a noisy and a strenuous race. After five weeks the brief existence of the cicada ends in exhaustion and death.

Considerable injury is done to young orchards and nursery trees by these insects. No young orchards should be set out this year until fall, when the danger from the swarm of cicadas is over. Trees already in growth should be treated with sprays and whitewashing at the time of emergence of the cicadas.

The southern state harbor broods of the thirteen-year cicada, which while similar in appearance and habits, is a separate and distinct species from the seventeen-year locust. from the seventeen-year insect.

Using Telephones

Every man, woman and child in the United States made two hundred telephone calls last year, it is estimated,—on paper. That estimate is arrived about the same way the national wealth is divided. Every so often our statisticians, which we have with us always, figure out that each individual has so much money, when in reality the majority have much below the average.

So it is with the telephone calls. The number of telephones in use at the close of the year was 21,842,000,000, or an average of one for every nine inhabitants, according to the United States bureau of census.

In estimating the number of calls, the statisticians figure that the woman who talks to all her neighbors every day, utilizing her spare time that way, makes up for the infants and the mutes who couldn't use a phone if they had one.

UNPARDONABLE SIN IS HEART CONDITION

I do not say that he shall pray for it," from John 5:16, was the text of last night's sermon.

"There are many discussions and questions," began the speaker, "as to just what is and what is not the unpardonable sin—the sin for which, as the Bible says, there is no use to pray, and the person committing it, by so doing forfeits all hope of seeing God.

"If I were to say that the unpardonable sin is the sin against the Holy Ghost and sins against man may be forgiven, then I would have the authority to go to a murderer of men, to the worst outcast in the red light district and say to them that salvation is theirs if they desire to take it. They will answer me that their sins are too great and yet I have the promise of God that all manner of sins are forgiven unto men. God is anxious and willing to forgive.

"The question comes up then whether the unpardonable sin is an act of the soul or a condition of the heart. Does one result from the other? The unpardonable sin is not lying, stealing, swearing, house-breaking, adultery or murdering or any of these things that we see accounts of in the daily papers. It must be then a condition of the heart. What produces this heart condition? It must be wilfully committed.

"The irremissible sin mentioned by the Saviour is the one committed by the wilful, disobedient, rebellious sinner, the man or woman who knowingly and intelligently resists God's truth and tramples under foot the blood of Christ. There is nothing clearer set forth, and it is possible to reach a place in sin that the individual is damned and lost as if he heard the words 'depart from me you workers of iniquity.'

"It does not mean that God is not the same yesterday, today and forever but the change is in us. We, when we refuse to answer God's call, get to the place where we can not see and believe and when we can not believe we can not be saved.

"Many of us may go along in this way until we are awakened by the rude hand of death and rushed to the judgment bar of God unprepared."

Here, the speaker quoted a number of telling scripture references, proving his points. He illustrated his talk with a number of convincing and appropriate stories and ended by appealing to his hearers to take their stand for God before they reached the place where they had committed the unpardonable sin.

MAKES VALUATION HERE LOOK LOW

Appraisal of Farm Land in Clinton County by a Member of The State Tax Board

Plans Here to Make Real Estate Average (About $140—Clinton is Similar to Rush

Judging by an assessment of farm land in Clinton county, which is very similar to Rush county, by a member of the state tax board, local land values for taxation purposes will have to be trebled in order to come up to the expectations of the state board.

Before the new law was passed, local taxing officials estimated that if they could bring the appraised value of Rush county farm land and improvements up to an average of $125, they would have complied with the terms of the law calling for "true cash value." Since the tax board has given its version of the new law, the county assessor, Earl Priest, has revised his opinion and told the township assessors at their conference here Saturday that land and improvement would have to average from $135 to $140.

But the appraisal in Clinton county by a member of the state board fixed the true cash value at figures ranging between $150 and $200. If an average of about $140 is reached here, there is every reason to believe that a reassessment will be ordered by the state board, or an increase will be put on all classes of property in order to bring the valuation up to where it should be.

When it comes to assessing farms the state tax commissioners are not ignorant, as two of the three members own farms and all of the members came from the country and know more about farm values than most men. What they could tell the average man about the value of land in different parts of the state, and the different kinds of land, would fool a lot of people. One of the state tax commissioners went to Clinton county, his former home, and assisted the local assessors in fixing values on the farms this year. Taking the old assessments as a basis, it looks a good deal like the values of land in Rush county.

Local valuations on the tax duplicates now run from $40 to $55 according to the 1915 appraisal. Here are the 1915 and the 1919 valuations by townships in Clinton county and will give some idea of what may be the result in Rush county.

	1915	Valuation
	Per Acre.	Per Acre.
Center .....	$60.50	$200.00
Jackson .....	53.42	185.00
Perry .....	45.56	165.00
Washington .....	43.08	165.00
Ross .....	43.40	145.00
Owen .....	44.37	150.00
Warren .....	43.66	150.00
Forest .....	47.71	165.00
Johnson .....	48.54	155.00
Sugar Creek .....	46.83	150.00
Kirklin .....	45.85	165.00
Michigan .....	45.50	145.00
Union .....	42.71	150.00

On the other hand, Mr. Sims, the member of the state tax board, says that the tax rate in Clinton county will be reduced to one-third the present levy, and that taxes paid next year will be no more. Reports have not been received from any of the township assessors in Henry county on this year's work, but a comparison will be interesting.

GARDEN SURROUNDED BY TALL BUILDINGS GROWS

Will a garden grow among high buildings?

Yes, say the garden specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture, if there is enough sunlight and the right kind of soil. The picture shows the preliminary steps in making a garden in one of the most unpromising sites imaginable, but that garden grew, although a tall theater was on one side of it and other buildings were on other sides.

Areas that the sun does not shine upon for at least four hours a day should not be planted, according to the garden specialists. The foliage crops, such as lettuce, spinach, parsley, kale, and chard, will thrive fairly well when they get three or four hours of sunlight a day. Such crops as tomatoes, eggplant and peppers should have an abundance of sunshine, at least five or six hours a day.

at Franklin.

TO TAKE UP PLAIS FOR DRIVE

Franklin, Mar. 17.—Fred Hoke, Indianapolis district chairman of the Methodist Minute Men, and Dr. E. R. Stafford, pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Episcopal church at Delaware, O., will open a series of sub-district minute men rallies at a meeting here tonight. The meeting is to be conducted in connection with the Methodist Missionary Centenary movement.

Hoke will speak tomorrow evening at Columbus and Wednesday evening at Seymour. Dr. Stafford will address meetings at Scottsburg Thursday evening and at Jeffersonville Friday evening. Minute men organizations and preliminary plans for a financial drive will be taken up at these meetings.

If you started a home garden last season, how about making it a permanent food producer?

A bed of asparagus is known to have given continuous service for more than thirty years, and asparagus is one of the first of the spring vegetables. A row of blackberries along a garden fence has produced abundant crops for twelve successive years. A few hills of rhubarb have provided delicious sauce and helped with the making of pies season after season, with very little cost or attention. Strawberries require more care, but they furnish the first ripe fruit in the springtime and a very small plot of ground in one corner of the garden will supply the family.

Put into a home garden a little money, knowledge gained from competent advice and your spare time. Draw from it an insight into the workings of nature, healthful exercise and a reduction in your food bills. A home garden is a good thing to keep going year after year.

The Monday Circle will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Parsons, 410 North Main street. Mrs. Demarehus Brown, of Indianapolis, will deliver the address on "Robert Burns and His Country". The lecture will begin promptly at 7:15 and all ladies are requested to be there on time so as to give Mrs. Brown ample time to return to Indianapolis tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Aikin entertained yesterday a number of guests with a four course twelve o'clock dinner party, at their country home north of the city. The centerpiece for the table was a cluster of carnations and the color scheme was green and white, representing St. Patrick's day. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gardner, and children Theima and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow and daughter Lola, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wright and son John, and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson. Games and music occupied the guests during the afternoon.

A pretty quiet home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McAllister in West Second street when their daughter, Miss Alvira M. McAllister became the bride of Harry F. Markley, a surgeon in the base hospital in New York. Only the immediate family was present. Mrs. Markley accompanied her husband to Chicago, where he will go on to New York, and Mrs. Markley will return to this city. Mr. Markley expects to be discharged from the service soon. The only out-of-town guests were the Misses Edna and Lena Wilman of Indianapolis, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Will Meredith Saturday evening. As an introduction a selection of several musical numbers was first given by the club. The anxious and wondering subjects then became the principal actors in the unique installation ceremony of many thrills and amusing situations throughout and which ended when the perspiring but very submissive victims were ushered into the dining room and invited to join the other members in a bountiful pitch-in supper which they had prepared for the occasion. Those completing the required course are Mary Maude Reed, Agnes Poston, Louise Pitman and Churchill Allen. Deryl Case led the meeting.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eubank, who will move to their farm north of the city soon, the members of the Yomo club gave a pitch-in supper for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Pegley in East Ninth street last evening. The dining table, where the delicious pitch-in supper was served, was adorned with a large French basket filled with white crocuses and ferns. Covers were laid for twenty-five guests.

The Loyal Daughters of the Main Street Christian Sunday school will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Elsie Ward in North Main street. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Russell Bearring, Miss Frances Mahin and Mrs. Edna Crum. As this will be a business meeting a large attendance is desired.

Miss Bertha Helm will be hostess for the S. E. T. club tomorrow afternoon at her home in West Fifth street.

Members of the O. N. T. club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Oshorn in North Harrison street.

The Psi Iota Xi meeting which was to have been held tomorrow evening, has been postponed until later in the week.

The Ladies Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lon Link at her home in North Perkins street. Mrs. Mart Spivey will be the leader and Mrs. Agatha Ward will furnish the music for the afternoon. All members and ladies of the church are invited.

The members of Bernice Encampment I. O. O. F., will enjoy a supper next Friday evening at 7 o'clock when they will assemble for the purpose of conferring the patriarchal degree upon a large class. Arrangements will be made for the installation of a new Encampment at Arlington; other matters of interest also will be discussed. It is anticipated that there will

MYSTIC THEATRE IS SOLD

Huntsinger and Sampson of Kokomo Take Charge Today

The sale of the Mystic theatre in Main street by E. W. Albright to L. C. Huntsinger and R. D. Sampson of Kokomo, Ind., has been closed and the new owners took charge today. Mr. Huntsinger, is stated, has been in the motion picture business for twenty years, having recently conducted a photoplay house in Kokomo. Previous to that time he was manager of the Alhambra theatre in Indianapolis. Mr. Sampson is a newcomer in the business, having previously been an insurance man.

DEMobilIZATION SLOWS UP

Washington, Mar. 17.—Demobilizations in the U. S. army now total 1,419,386, the office of the chief of staff has announced. The demobilization has been slowed up at the camps, but this is due to the fact nearly all the men in this country except those needed to maintain the camp, have been discharged. Last week's total of demobilization of 34,031 is the smallest of any week since November 23.

ALL BILLS OF 1919 SESSION DISPOSED OF

Legal Advisors of the Governor Complete Going Over Measures Saturday Afternoon.

SCHOOL BILLS ARE POSTPONED

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Mar. 17.—Practically all of the bills of the 1919 general assembly have been disposed of by Governor Goodrich.

His legal advisors completed going over the bills Saturday afternoon and explained the provisions of the remaining ones to the governor.

The governor was in Winchester Saturday afternoon and authorized his signature over the telephone.

All measures concerning schools, amending school laws were postponed. Much of the day was spent eliminating those which were in many ways duplicated by other bills. The bill regulating auto license fees was signed.

APPEAL TAKEN FOR COTTIN

Pairs, Mar. 17.—An appeal has been entered against the death sentence passed on Emile Cottin, the assailant of Premier Clemenceau.

ATTEMPT TO SHOOT LENINE

Zurich, Mar. 17.—Another attempt has been made to assassinate Premier Lenine according to dispatches received from Berlin today. He was shot at in Moscow but was unwounded, it was stated. His assailant was lynched.

The efforts of a swindled to get the confidence and coin of the gullible natives of a small town on a string bean cannery project form the basis of the plot. The story is said to be highly amusing, full of human nature and containing a pretty romance.

Mr. Ray as a young farm hand with a literary turn, goes to the local newspapers of a country town and asks for a job which he gets. The proprietor, a typical country editor, is fighting a scheme advanced by a crook to found a bean cannery and the mayor is in favor of it. A big mass meeting is held and the editor is to contest the movement, but falls ill at the last moment. Ray takes his place but gets stuck in the speech and escapes in consternation. Later he prevents the sharper from robbing the mayor, gains the love of the latter's daughter and distinguishes himself. The natives are saved and the swindler is caught with the goods.

STYLE SHOW WEEK

At MAUZY'S

The Auto Show
Of course you will attend the Auto Show this week. Our local dealers deserve your hearty co-operation to make this, Rushville's First Auto Show, the success it merits. Join the crowds and make this a gala occasion.

¶ This is the event that women have been looking forward to. Our display affords a comprehensive view of the new style ideas; the fashionable effects in capes, cape coats, dolmans, sport coats, motor coats; boxy suits, tailored, semi-tailored and trimmed suits; beautiful dresses, suitable for street, afternoon or evening wear; in a word, all that goes to make up fashion.

¶ And, to claim your attention too, are scores of new arrivals in handsome skirts, dainty blouses, boots, oxfords, silks, gloves, hosiery, neckwear, jewelry, bags and lingerie.

New Floorcoverings.

New Draperies.

In connection with the Auto Show, this store will stage during the entire week, a comprehensive display of all that is new for Spring. Every talent of the designer; every artifice of the garment builder; every knowledge of the expert have been fused in these latest creations.

Amusements

Serial at Mystic

The fifth episode of "The Lure of the Circus," is the offering at the Mystic theatre tonight, a blind pig comedy is also on the program. Tomorrow Tom Mix is on the program in "Fame and Fortune."

Dorothy Gish at Princess

Dorothy Gish in "The Hope Chest" is the offering at the Princess theatre tonight. Tomorrow Charles Ray in "String Beans" is advertised. Isn't that a typical Ray title "String Beans?" And it is also quite appropriate for the efforts of the sharper to swindle a gullible lot of farmers with a fake cannery project for beans is the basis of the story, in which Ray is starred.

It is a Thomas H. Ince picture released by Paramount. These facts, coupled with the declaration that Charles Ray is to star and that sweet little Jane Novak is his leading woman—ought to attract record crowds. There is a fine cast, and the story is one of those real country town dramas with lots of humor and human interest and a

PARIS GIRLS WANT
YANKEE HUSBANDS

Newspaper Investigates and Finds That Americans Are Greatly Admired.

To get an American husband seems to be the aim of more than 40 per cent of the Parisian young women. At all events, that is the result of an inquiry conducted by L'Oeuvre, a Paris daily newspaper, which publishes a series of letters setting forth the reasons that have guided the writers to give preference to Americans over their compatriots.

Those who would rather be married to Frenchmen base their predilection largely on patriotic grounds, but a large percentage of young French women confess to a whole-hearted admiration of the average American's breezy good humor and courtesy of manner toward the other sex. Several French girls who have had an opportunity to observe American home life appreciate the easy camaraderie between the sexes, and they come to the conclusion that a good comrade must make a good husband.

Some fair writers say that French Romeos are given to talking overmuch and are too fussy about their personal appearance. The question as to whether a man ought to shave or not seems to agitate the French feminine mind considerably, and the voting is about equal between the smooth-shaven American and his French brother with a mustache.

One girl raises the curious objection that "Americans eat too much," while another disapproves of "the heavily framed American spectacles with the huge round lenses which so many Americans affect."

WAR SHRINES SOON
WILL HONOR HEROES

Beautiful war memorials have been proposed in many cities to honor the American soldiers who fought overseas. A great campaign has been designed by Architect Robert C. Lafferty of New York city. The magnificent shrine would include a clock, chimes and pipe organ, and the lofty tower would be surmounted by the figure of democracy. Lafferty's plan is to have one of these erected in every large city of the nation as a war memorial.

Round Oak Pipeless Furnace
The Best Pipeless Furnace on the Market

It will heat your home year after year with a generous volume of pure, warm, moist, ever-changing air, free from dust, gas and smoke.

It will burn any and all fuels successfully and economically. It will hold the fire over night without recharging, even in zero weather.

The System costs only one-fourth to one-third the price of steam or hot water, yet it responds more quickly. Its results are positive.

It may be easily and quickly installed and ready for service in less than twenty-four hours from the time it is delivered to your home.

The Round Oak Pipeless
Is a Clean System

The patented, improved, bolted and deep-jointed construction and its heavy castings mean no dust or dirt in your home.

We are positive it is the best built, most efficient, durable and satisfactory Pipeless Heating System on the market.

It is worth every cent you invest in its purchase. Its saving in fuel alone pays a liberal interest on the investment.

GERMAN SOLDIERS
GET JOBS QUICKLY

Surprisingly Little "Industrial Dislocation" has Resulted From Demobilization of Huns.

UNEMPLOYED NUMBER 2,535

Employment Problem is Handled by Bureaus in Each Town Who Look out for Openings.

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the Army of occupation, Feb. 20. (By Mail.)—An investigation of the industrial situation in the occupied area by the Intelligence department of the Third Army shows that surprisingly little "industrial dislocation" has resulted from the influx demobilization of the German armies in this region.

Despite the inpouring of thousands of demobilized soldiers the number of unemployed in February was only 2,535 in the whole area of over five thousand square miles, with a population of over half a million. At that time about 88 per cent of the soldiers from the Rhineland had been demobilized and returned to their homes. Although the exact figures upon the number of returned soldiers are unavailable, they will run into tens of thousands.

The employment problem is handled by bureaus in each town or village which puts the returned soldier in touch with openings for employment. Employers in need of labor report to these bureaus, where the offers are submitted to applicants. In this way thousands were put back to work with the loss of little time.

During forced unemployment, the State pays every unemployed man a sum ranging from four marks to eight marks per day, according to the size of his family. German authorities complain that this "unemployment pay" is too high and offers little incentive to seek labor, because the common wage for day labor is from five to eight marks per day. The new high unemployment payment is a fruit of the revolution, but the rule is being strictly enforced in the Rhineland, in spite of the complaints of employers.

Many places for returned soldiers were provided by the immediate discharge of women workers, wherever they had taken the jobs of men. Although the pay for women was much lower, even where they were doing the same work as men, the employers were forced by the pressure of public sentiment and in some towns by municipal orders to discharge women.

Owing to the agricultural nature of the area, the employment problem presented less difficulties than in the centralized industrial centers. A large percentage of the demobilized soldiers went back turned to their farms and vineyards. About three-fourths of the total number of unemployed are in the four larger towns of Coblenz, Trier, Neuwied and Montabaur.

GERMAN AIR TOLL 729

Copenhagen, Mar. 17—Seven hundred and twenty-nine persons were killed and 1,754 injured in aerial attacks by allied forces on German territory up to Nov. 6, 1918, according to official figures made public in Berlin.

Are Signals of Bad Blood

Give Heed to the Warning.
Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, eruptions and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire. They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin. Go to your drugstore, and get a bottle of S. S. ONE MAN OPERATES BOTH TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENT

MOLINE
UNIVERSAL TRACTOR
It Solves The Farm Help Problem

With two 14-inch bottoms, under average plowing conditions, the new Moline Universal Tractor, Model D, plows 9 acres in 10 hours, as much as ordinary 3-plow machine. The superior efficiency of the Moline Universal is due to its higher speed, 3½ miles an hour, two bottoms at 3½ miles giving the same number of plow-miles as three bottoms at 2½ miles.

Plowing at 3½ miles an hour gives ideal results, the ground being pulverized more thoroughly than at slower speeds, with less air space. Tough sod that cannot be turned at all at 2½ miles an hour is plowed with ease.

Perfect work is assured with the Moline Universal through the advantageous position of the operator, who sits on the implement, where he must sit in order to do good work. The Moline Universal is easily handled, turns short, and backs as readily as it goes forward.

Waste of time in the field is eliminated and the tractor kept at productive work a maximum number of hours a day through a complete electric starting and lighting system. The Moline Universal is the only tractor thus regularly equipped.

The secret of the speed and power of the Moline Universal lies in its perfected overhead-valve engine and two-wheel construction. The engine develops 18 horsepower at the belt, and 9 at the drawbar, every ounce of which is available for pull. There are no dead wheels to drag along that only carry weight and steer.

For plowing in extremely soft ground, the Moline Universal is equipped with a differential lock that enables the two drive wheels to be locked together, doubling their pulling power.

When plowing the land wheel is raised so that the tractor is level. The wheel is very easily and quickly raised or lowered.

The light weight of the Moline Universal, 3380 pounds, and its high clearance, 29½ inches, make it adapted for all other field work, besides plowing. With it one man can plant 40 acres a day, cultivate 20 acres a day, harvest 25 acres a day, or do any other work with equal speed. It is the ideal tractor for any sized farm, practically eliminating horses and solving the farm help problem.

MINES ENDANGER OCEAN VESSELS

High Explosives Still Float in Lanes of Commerce.

NAVIES TO SWEEP THE SEAS

Known Fields Will Be Cleared and Derelicts Will Be Picked Up—Danger May Extend for Years, and Mines, Freed From Moorings, May Be Swept Miles by Ocean Currents—Many Ships Sunk.

Untold thousands of unexploded mines, planted in navigable waters during the four years of war, still linger in the lanes of commerce like seeds of death, a constant menace to the toilers of the deep. Weeks back the sting of the U-boat was drawn. The signing of the armistice halted further ravaging of the submarine, and shipping sailed forth no longer in dread of the torpedo or the guns of the under-sea craft. Nevertheless ships are endangered by other marine agencies of death, and the mariner cannot be sure that these hazards won't lie in his path for months to come and do him harm when and where least expected.

Already the navies of the allied nations have undertaken the hazardous work of clearing the recognized mine fields in European waters, and by the use of wire drags propose to remove every mine that still is held in position by its moorings. The chief danger to the mine sweepers and to commerce in general lies, however, in the derelict mine, which has been washed from its original position and is likely to be found in the North sea, in the Gulf stream, on the shores of the United States or in any other location to which the current, tide or winds may drive the mine with its charge of TNT, which is notably inert to the action of water and will retain its destructive potentialities until the charge is exploded.

Many Ships Sunk by Mines.

Early in December the British warship Cassandra struck a mine in the Baltic and went down with the loss of 11 men. In January a British freighter foundered off Middlesborough after hitting a mine and her crew was lost. A few days later the French ship Chaoula stumbled upon a mine in the Straits of Messina and went to the bottom in four minutes. Four hundred and sixty persons on board were lost. The British sloop Penarth was sunk by a mine 23 miles from the mouth of the Tyne. Scarcely a day passes, in fact, that some British, Norwegian, Swedish or other craft is not sunk or crippled by a mine in the North sea. Navigation has become so hazardous that many craft proceed only by day, thus lessening the danger of coming into contact with the dreaded derelicts.

Official figures issued by the Dutch and Danish authorities give some idea of the number of mines that have been torn from their moorings during the recent war. At the close of the first two years of war more than 500 mines

The combined list for Sunday and Monday shows: Killed in action, 8; died of disease, 58; wounded severely, ly, 34; died from wounds, 2; died of accident and other causes, 5; missing in action, 1; wounded slightly, 80; wounded, degree undetermined, 54; total, 232.

Five Hoosiers were in the list as follows:
Wounded severely—Private Lester C. Jines, Hartford City.

FEEL MISERABLE FROM THAT COLD?

Colds and coughs are quickly relieved by Dr. King's New Discovery

Now you should feel "perfectly miserable" from a cold, cough or bronchial attack for very long. For it takes only a little while to relieve it and get back on the road to recovery when Dr. King's New Discovery is faithfully used. It soon loosens the phlegm, relieves irritation, soothes the parched, sore throat, brings comfort.

Half a century old and more popular today than ever. 60c and $1.20.

Make Your Bowels Behave

Make them function with gratifying precision. If regulation of the diet does not relieve their torpidity Dr. King's New Life Pills will. They are perfect bowel trainers, cleanse the system surely, comfortably. 25c.

Died of disease—Corp. Emmett Demaree, Madison.

Wounded, degree undetermined—James Albert McIntyre, Linton.

Wounded slightly—Private Emory E. Coffinet, Leopold; Private Charles H. Albrecht.

The commander-in-chief in the name of the president, has awarded the distinguished-service cross to the following named soldiers of Indiana for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names.

Private Gustav Gjerstead, Company D, 9th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Mayonville, France, November 1, 1918. While assisting a squad to flank a machine-gun nest which was delaying his company's advance, Pvt. Gjerstead was twice painfully wounded. He persisted in continuing in the advance until another wound forced him to the rear for treatment. Home address, Gary.

Private Dean F. Smiley (deceased), 6th Marines, 75th Company. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Etienne, France, October 9, 1918. Pvt. Smiley rushed a hostile machine-gun nest single-handed, killing three of the crew and capturing the remainder. While taking his prisoners to the rear, this gallant soldier was killed by enemy artillery fire. Next of kin, Mrs. Jennie Smiley, mother, Goshen.

Sergt. Benjamin Dickens, Company E, 16th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Forest of Argonne, France, October 4, 1918. Although he was severely wounded early in the attack, Sergt. Dickens refused to be evacuated, and he took command of the company and led it to the objective. Shortly afterwards the enemy made a strong attack against the position, but, although he was scarcely able to walk he so successfully led his company that the superior number of the enemy was forced to withdraw. Home address, Broad Ripple.

For Burning Eczema

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any druggist for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large size, get a bottle of zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive, penetrating, antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

SOLDIER AIDED IN THE KILLING OF ARCH DUKE

Private Frank Hobel Reported to be One of Four Men Who Plotted The Assassination.

LOCATED AT CAMP SHERMAN

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, March 17.—Intelligence officers are investigating the story told by Frank Hobel, private in the base hospital, that he was one of the four men who plotted the assassination of the Austrian arch duke, which plunged the world in the war.

Hobel, after the assassination, was given $300 by his father to leave Serbia. He then took passage for America and landed in New York six weeks later. He then went to Ohio and secured a position in the steel mines.

When the United States came into the war Hobel was drafted and sent to Camp Sherman where he has been since. Most of the time was spent in the hospital where he took treatment for tuberculosis. Intelligence officers said today that their investigation so far indicated Hobel is telling the truth.

Mothers Thank Us

Keep your growing girls free from colds and weakening coughs and you are helping them to healthy vigorous womanhood.

Thousands of mothers have written letters of thanks, telling what

Foley's Honey and Tar has done for their daughters in ridding them of coughs that "hung on" and weakened them just at the age when the young girls required all the physical strength they could command.

Foley's Honey and Tar is noted for its quick effect on coughs, colds and croup. Mrs. Ada Sanders, Cottontown, Tenn., writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure our two girls when they have colds."

CHAMBERS FIRELESS COOKING GAS RANGE!

Tested and Endorsed by the New York Tribune Institute

A Combination Gas Range and Fireless Cooker

Electrical Engineer,
And Louise M. Williams,
Domestic Scientist,
Tribune Institute Staff

REPORT OF CONSTRUCTION AND GAS EFFICIENCY.

THE CHAMBERS FIRELESS Gas Range has much the same general external appearance as other standard gas stoves, except for the cylindrical hood over one of the rear burners, the pulley weight that operates this hood and the special safety devices that fasten the oven door and turn off the oven heat and close the damper, thus sealing the oven and converting it into a fireless cooker. The fastener on the oven door is so constructed that pressure from within would cause it to open—a precaution against the remote possibility of accident.

The body and frame of the range is constructed of cast iron and sheet steel, with a heavy baked black enamel covering. There are four top burners, a simmerer, an oven and a broiler. The oven is heavily insulated and provided with a damper, which must be wide open while the flame is on and tightly closed afterward, so that the heat will be sealed burning and the damper closed, which precludes the possibility of danger.

A steel insulated hood, 10½ inches wide and 9½ inches high, fits over the back burner and sets down so close-

burner consumed the gas at the rate of fifteen cubic feet an hour.

The oven heats up quickly and the gas consumption is only at the rate of twenty-four cubic feet an hour, a saving of from fifty to 100 per cent, as compared with the majority of gas ovens. In fifteen minutes a temperature of 550 degrees Fahrenheit was reached, while 650 degrees Fahrenheit—a maximum temperature for fireless operations—was reached in twenty minutes. At this temperature the gas was turned off and the damper closed. The oven showed a temperature of 425 degrees Fahrenheit half an hour later, while in an hour the temperature was 325 degrees (moderate heat), and in two hours 225 degrees Fahrenheit.

In cooking with the Chambers fireless gas range no extra utensils are necessary. The heat is applied directly to the food and after the necessary length of time the gas is turned off and the food continues to cook by the confined heat in the oven or under the hood, as the case may be. The hood is a special feature built to save fuel when long time cooking on top of the range is necessary. Because the greater part of cooking, by far, is done on top of the stove, the hood is a very economical and advantageous feature. The food is placed over the flame and the hood lowered until it stops automatically within two inches of the surface of the stove. When the gas is turned off a clutch is released which allows the hood to be completely lowered. The cooking then continues by means of the heat stored in the hood, which ordinarily would pass into the air and be wasted. The hood cannot be completely lowered until the gas is turned off. This safety feature makes the fireless hood "fool proof," for it is impossible to shut out the air while the flame is on. This, if done, would extinguish the flame, leave the gas flowing and result in spoiled food or a possible explosion.

A New Way to Save Gas, and Time and Trouble

rooster was split in half to give an equal portion for the two tests in the fireless oven and the usual gas stove. The amount of gas used in the Chambers range was 8 cubic feet, as compared with 15 cubic feet used in searing and roasting in the gas oven. The fireless-cooked section was slightly more tender, but not quite so brown as the other half, but both were remarkably eatable, considering the toughness of the bird. The Chambers again shows a saving of about 88 per cent in gas consumption with slightly superior results.

Meats—To roast meats the food is placed (with no water) in a covered roaster in the cold oven. The gas is turned on for from five to eight minutes a pound, according to the kind

twenty, or thirty minutes per pound, longer by fireless. The book of directions furnished with every range will give the housewife an idea of the approximate times for all cooking processes, but she must use her past experience and common sense to modify the directions to suit her own specific needs and conditions.

POTATOES—Potatoes of equal size (each 6 ounces) were baked in the Chambers fireless oven and in another gas oven. In the fireless range the potatoes were placed in the cold oven the gas turned on for twenty minutes, then shut off and the potato allowed to cook in the fireless for 30 minutes longer. This required 8½ cubic feet of gas, in comparison with 21 cubic feet necessary to bake the potatoes in the other range, about 150 per cent saving of gas. In this case the greater mealiness and fluffiness of the fireless baked potatoes were noticeable.

CAKE—The cake test was very successful. A batter sufficient to make two layers was mixed and one layer baked in each oven. For the fireless range, the oven was heated eight minutes previous to putting in the cake, then the gas was left on five minutes after the layer was in. This was followed by fifteen minutes of fireless cooking. The results were excellent; the fireless-baked cake was lighter in texture and was browned more perfectly than the layer from the other stove. The gas consumption was 6 cubic feet, while that consumed by the other stove was 10½.

ly on the stove top that a fireless cooker compartment is formed around utensils which have been heated over the burner. A steel rod elevates and lowers this hood and the counter weight assists in its easy movement.

The top gas burners showed a heat efficiency comparable with the best. The medium burner, with a gas consumption rate of ten cubic feet an hour, heated one quart of water in a covered saucepan to 200 degrees Fahrenheit in five and a quarter minutes, while the same test repeated over the giant burner required only four and a half minutes. This

ture for fireless operations—was reached in twenty minutes. At this temperature the gas was turned off and the damper closed. The oven showed a temperature of 425 degrees Fahrenheit half an hour later, while in an hour the temperature was 325 degrees (moderate heat), and in two hours 225 degrees Fahrenheit.

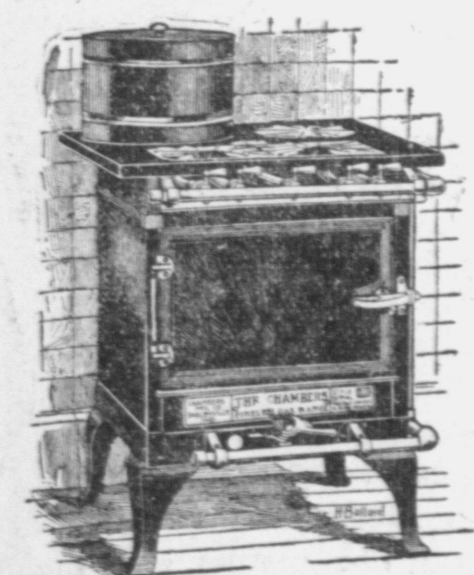

In cooking with the Chambers fireless gas range no extra utensils are necessary. The heat is applied directly to the food and after the necessary length of time the gas is turned off and the food continues to cook by the confined heat in the

OVEN TESTS.

Marked saving of gas and labor was also shown in the baking and roasting operations. A very tough

of meat. Then the gas is shut off, the flue in the back of the oven being closed automatically at the same time by the action of the damper level. The meat is allowed to cook inside. The lever which closes the damper with the same movement shuts off the gas. Thus it is practically impossible to have the gas

WHEAT GUARANTEE HELPS ALL CROPS

Acts as a Balance That Will Sustain Present Prices on All Farm Products.

PUT THE SURPLUS INTO BONDS

Federal Reserve Board Looks to Farmer for a Generous Support of the Coming Victory Liberty Loan.

The United States Congress has appropriated $1,000,000,000 to guarantee the American farmer $2.25 a bushel for his 1919 wheat crop, a price which is $1 a bushel more than he might reasonably expect if American wheat was thrown on the market to compete with Argentine, Australian and Indian wheat. The American farmer has responded to the government's guarantee by pledging the production of millions of bushels more wheat than he has ever grown before, according to officials of the United States Food Administration's Grain Corporation.

The American farmer has never been in better financial condition, the officials say. The report of the Federal Reserve Board shows that the 1918 farm crop added $17,000,000,000 to the wealth of the country. The corn crop alone put $3,528,313,000 in the farmer's pocket. Hay added $1,500,000,000 to the farmer's income. Apples brought him $230,000,000. Oats sold on the farm for something over $1,000,000,000.

The guaranteed price of wheat will not only assure the farmer a profit on wheat, but will also sustain the prices on other farm products, Food Administration officials point out. With the return of an abundance of labor, the farmer is assured a highly prosperous year.

With the surplus the farmer has from his last abundant harvest and with his present season's return in a large measure guaranteed, the Federal Reserve Board looks to the farmer for a generous support of the coming Victory Liberty Loan. The securities to be offered will merit his attention as first class investments, aside from their patriotic appeal.

"Sixty thousand American lads, many of them farmer boys, gave their lives for the freedom of democracy," said an official of the United States Food Administration.

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows

Prepare Now to Withstand the Crisis.

Do not anticipate with a shuddering dread the beautiful event of childbirth. You can avoid discomfort during the period and strain at the crisis by preparing your system and putting yourself in splendid condition to meet the time.

For just this purpose women all over the land, in every walk of life, have used for over half a century the time-honored and famous remedy, Mother's Friend. It is prepared to give the mother-to-be that direct help she needs. The muscles, nerves, tendons and cords are made and kept soft and elastic. Thus strain is avoided, and as a result nervousness, nausea, bearing-down and stretching pains are avoided.

The abdominal muscles expand easily and gently when baby is born. Naturally, pain is less and the hours are fewer. The system is prepared and the crisis is one of much less danger.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. M, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their helpful Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist today. It is just as standard as anything you can think of.

And remember, there is nothing to take the place of MOTHER'S FRIEND.

States Food Administration. "Had the war continued throughout next summer, as our military chiefs believed it would, two hundred thousand Americans and many more hundreds of thousands of their compatriots would have been sleeping in Flanders' fields and beneath the sod of France and Lorraine.

"That these lives were spared was due in a large measure to the lavish expenditure of the United States government in assembling men and munitions to crush Germany. Most of the men and even less of the material of war was never used. Yet the mighty preparations of our government forced the Germans to cry 'Kamerad.'

"The American farmer's sons are coming home for the most part unscathed. For this the American farmer is duly grateful. From his abundance from the past year and from his assured prosperity for the coming season, he should and will set a new record, a Thanksgiving record, in his subscription to the Victory Loan."

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."—
LET US STAND BY DEAR OLD UNCLE SAM.

Uncle Sam is asking for a Victory Liberty Loan to clinch the stupendous demonstration that moral force, not military force, is to rule the world. We must care for our army of occupation and bring it home; we must reconstruct and rehabilitate those who have been wounded and blinded in defense of the right. This is to be a Loan of Thanksgiving, and the response should be more hearty and joyous than the response to any of the preceding Loans. Uncle Sam has helped to save the world for Liberty and Civilization. Let us give him the wherewithal to complete the job.

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."—
"Peace must be financed as well as war, and the initial stages of peace may be found even more expensive than war. Therefore, get behind the Victory Liberty Loan when it comes."
—Secretary Glass.

ONE-THIRD OF WORLD'S GOLD

Back of Every Victory Liberty Bond—No Safer Guarantee Than Our Surplus Gold Possibilities.

Gold is the basis of all credit. The United States is now about to enter a fifth great popular campaign for the sale of government bonds to the citizens of the nation. America has contracted more than $5,000,000,000 of debt since December 1 last in paying war bills, and this money must be raised by the people.

Every reader of this paper undoubtedly believes that United States government bonds are the safest investment on earth. But many of them do not, perhaps, know just how to explain their belief.

One of the reasons why United States government bonds are the safest investment on earth is that the United States now possesses one-third of the world's gold. This has come about as a result of the war. The nation had large gold holdings before the fighting began in 1914, but since then the nations of the earth have been forced to send us shiploads of gold in order to get needed supplies and maintain trade relations.

The Federal Reserve banks do not hold, probably, more than two-thirds of this nation's supply of gold, yet they have in their reserves more than one-half as much as the state banks of the next 14 most wealthy nations, and abroad the state banks have collected practically every gold piece that the people possessed.

The following table bearing this fact in mind, tells why the government bonds are the safest investment known:

Nations With Greatest Gold Holdings.	Total Gold Holdings.
Bank of France .....	$ 663,000,000
Bank of Germany .....	620,000,000
Bank of England (with note reserve) .....	505,000,000
Bank of Spain .....	450,000,000
Bank of Russia .....	400,000,000
Argentine conversion fund .....	378,000,000
Bank of Japan .....	325,000,000
Bank of the Netherlands .....	285,000,000
Bank of Italy .....	210,000,000
United States (Federal Reserve banks only) .....	2,060,265,000

Investing to the limit in Victory Liberty loan bonds is the best venture one can make.

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."—

The proceeds of the Victory Liberty Loan are to be used to bring our soldiers and sailors back and restore them to the useful occupations of peace. Every true-blue 100 per cent American should have a part in this work.

Janesville Walking Plow

What Is Walking-Plow Satisfaction?

"THE handles must be just the right height and swing over far enough in the furrow to allow me to walk squarely between them.

"The plow must run reasonably well without too much draft either to the land or to the furrow.

"The hitch must be such as to allow the tugs to be reasonably long to give the plow plenty of freedom to find itself in the furrow at the depth I wish to plow.

All This You Get in Janesville S. & S.

"This freedom in the furrow allows the plow a certain amount of oscillation as it slices the furrow and takes the 'pinch' away from the cutting edge of the share. This lightens the draft and saves me time.

"The quality of the work must be regular and the furrow left in as uniform condition as the character of the soil will permit. This reduces the cost of working it down into a seed bed.

"The long, smooth, easy roll of the furrow over the perfect scouring share and moldboard, and the plow guided by a slight pressure of either hand now and then eases the day's labor for man and team and insures the best work."—A Personal Testimonial. It will do as well for you. Let us prove it.

THRESHERMEN TAKE NOTICE

The meeting to have taken place at Greensburg on Friday March 28, has been changed to Saturday March 29. 313

Harry E. Barnard, federal food administrator for Indiana, made public today.

These rules, which at the time of their repeal, applied only to meats were as follows:

Rule 13 provided that the licensee should not keep on hand or have in possession by contract or other arrangement, food commodities in excess of the reasonable requirements of his business during a period of sixty days.

Rule 14 provided that the licensee should not sell or deliver to any person any food commodities which would give to such person a supply of such commodities in excess of his reasonable requirements for use or sale by him during a period of sixty days.

Rule 15 provided that a licensee should not make or have outstanding contracts for the sale of food commodities for delivery more than sixty days after the making of such contract.

WEAKNESS REMAINS LONG AFTER Influenza

Reports Show That Strength, Energy and Ambition Return Very Slowly to Grippe Patients.

After an attack of influenza, doctors advise that nature be assisted in its building-up process by the use of a good tonic—one that will not only put strength and endurance into the body, but will also help to build up and strengthen the run-down cells of the brain.

One of the most highly recommended remedies to put energy into both body and brain is Bio-feren—your physician knows the formula—it is printed below.

There's iron in Bio-feren—the kind of iron that makes red blood corpuscles and creates vigor. There is lecithin also; probably the best brain invigorator known to science. Then there is good old, reliable gentian, that brings back your lagging appetite.

There are other ingredients that help to promote good health, as you can see by reading this formula, not forgetting kolo, that great agent that puts the power of endurance into weak people.

Taken altogether Bio-feren is a splendid active tonic that will greatly help any weak, run-down person to regain normal strength, energy, ambition and endurance.

Bio-feren is sold by all reliable druggists and is inexpensive. For weakness after influenza patients are advised to take two tablets after each meal and one at bed time—seven a day, until health, strength and vigor are fully restored.

It will not fail to help you and if for any reason you are dissatisfied with results your druggist is authorized to return your money upon request—without any red tape of any kind.

Note to physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Olearia Capsicum. Kolo.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

tion of a memorial building in Batesville in honor of the soldiers of the town and Laughery township who were in the service during the world war.

The conditions under which the contribution is to be made are that a building costing not less than $50,000 be erected and that definite plans for it be completed by July 1 of the present year and construction started by April 1, 1920.

The building is to be a combined town administration and community building, containing an auditorium for public gatherings.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Alice Garner, age 64, wife of David Garner, who died at her home in Dunreith Friday evening, were held at the Friends church in Greensboro Sunday morning and burial took place in the cemetery there. Mrs. Garner had suffered for two years with heart disease. Besides her husband she is survived by three children, Walter of Kennard, Herman of near Spiceland and Mrs. Fannie Hoppes of Knightstown. She is also survived by two brothers, Oscar and Frank Weeks, of Charlottesville, and two sisters, Mrs. Elmira Hooker of Kokomo and Mrs. Jane Anderson of near Newcastle.

GERMANS GIVE UP TO AVERT GREATEST BATTLE

Allies Planned to Deliver Super-stroke Against Huns on November 12.

The greatest battle of history was to have started on November 12, 1918. That was the day set for a super-stroke by the allies.

To save themselves a crushing defeat the Germans surrendered—signing the armistice 24 hours before the dreaded blow was to fall.

This is the postwar revelation made by Paris Excelsior, which says:

"While furious fighting was going on in the north of France, the German general staff was preoccupied with its Alsace-Lorraine front. For more than a month they feared a surprise attack in this quarter.

"Through the secret service the Germans learned an important movement was under preparation by the allies on the Lorraine front. The concentration of masses of troops before Briey was reported to them. They learned that 600,000 men under command of Gen. de Castelnau were being got ready to leap forward and carry the war into German soil.

"The allied units were of picked divisions, and the Germans were paralyzed with fear. They were menaced by 3,000 cannons of all caliber along a 70-kilometer front. The allies were ready to sweep a path through the German line with 300 tanks waiting for the word.

"Against this mass of men and material the duke of Wuertemberg had only 25 inferior divisions, amounting to about 160,000 men and less than 1,000 guns.

"The German general staff was fully aware of the gravity of the situation. They understood the aim of the allies first to encircle Metz and then enter Lorraine and finally invade Rhenish Prussia.

"The German forces were disorganized, used up, played out.

"Then they learned November 12 was the day set for the attack. They found this out on November 6. The next day they asked for an armistice—and got it just in time to save their armies from complete disaster."

No Matter How Obstinate or How Contracted — Cured

When I say I can cure you, you can depend upon it, for I know from the successful results in thousands of similar cases to yours, just what I can accomplish. Grateful patients treated by me are constantly recommending others, and this is why I possess such a large practice.

Men! Women! If you do less than you should, on your farm, at your desk, or in your shop, you are in some way weak. If you can't accomplish all that you expect or hope for, you are the silent sufferer from some hidden disease that affects one or more of the important nerve centers of the body. These neglected or unknown conditions, are usually diseases of the Pelvic System, which reflexly act upon the organs of Elimination, digestion and the nervous system, which in turn has its influence on the brain. I have made a special study of the Nervous System and have perfected methods that will cure where ordinary methods have failed. I will give you a searching and thorough examination FREE, thus determining the exact location of your trouble.

BEAR IN MIND that I have in Indianapolis one of the most modern and thoroughly equipped offices in the state with a Specialist in charge who is ripe in years of experience, rich and mature in learning in his chosen work. ## Of course, you want a Fordson

THE Fordson is an ideal tractor for your farm. It is built compactly, simply, yet with abundant power. It pulls a two bottom plow and will do a proportionate amount of any other farm power work.

The Fordson engine is unusual. It is simple, easily cared for, and so designed that the farmer can give any attention required in service. The entire head of the cylinders, which are cast en bloc, can be removed for grinding valves.

The air is cleaned with an improved air washer. A special carburetor allows the use of kerosene—without any of the trouble that is commonly associated with this fuel.

The Oliver No. 7 Plow was built for your Fordson

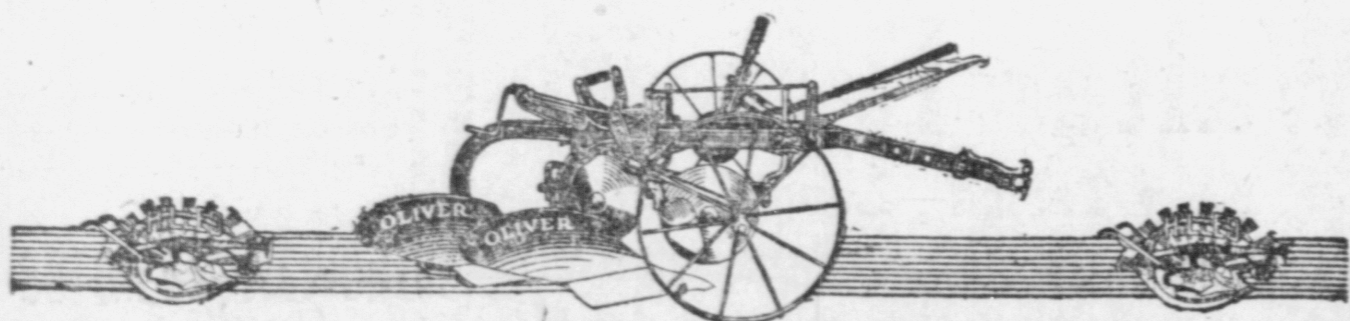

The Oliver No. 7 plow in addition to being specially adapted to the Fordson tractor has all its well-known Oliver features. It buries the weeds and trash; it is operated from the driver's seat; the furrow is always kept at the same depth by a special stop device; in fact, it is an ideal tractor plow designed for that one purpose only.

160-acre Coplan ranch near Rosalia, Wash., and within a short time will begin "prospecting" for the complete skeleton of one of the largest mastodons ever unearthed. Parts of the skeleton have been located.

Porter Brothers, local contractors, have been engaged to do the excavation work and are awaiting favorable weather. This was the announcement made by W. S. Lewis, secretary of the museum.

E. A. Lindsley of the Lindsley Brothers company, in the Peyton building, and Porter Brothers will furnish the capital for the excavation work.

The farm, which has a low, boggy soil, has been the source of several mastodon bones unearthed in past years. There are several more skeletons bogged in the place. It is believed, and the one the Spokane museum hopes to recover complete will stand 14 feet high, with tusks extending about 10 feet from the jaws. This will equal in size the largest mastodon ever unearthed, which was found on this same farm in 1878 and now on exhibition in the Academy of Science in Chicago.

WILL SELL SMALL CRAFT

Shipping Board Will Dispose of One Million Tons of Vessels.

The United States shipping board has announced that it will dispose of more than 1,000,000 tons of vessels built to meet the demands of war. The ships to be sold will include 110 wooden vessels, 12 composite ships and many of the small steel cargo craft constructed to help supply the army in France.

The board has planned to employ the funds obtained from the sale for the construction of large steel ships designed for long-voyage hauling, which the American ships will be called upon to perform.

GIRLS HID ON TRANSPORT

Two Found on Troopship Which Brought 18 War Brides.

When the United States transport Louisville arrived at New York city from Brest her officers reported that, in addition to bringing brides of 18 American officers and privates, there were two nineteen-year-old English girls on board who had stowed away in Liverpool and were not discovered until a week later.

Captain Hartley, commander of the Louisville, permitted the stowaways to remain in the cabin they had appropriated and to take their meals with the other women.

Nebraska Led in War Stamp Sales.

The per capita sale of War Savings stamps in Nebraska last year was $21.18 greater than any other state in the country. The aggregate sales in that state aggregated $27,450,000. Ohio, with $86,244,000 total sales, ranked first in volume, but second in per capita sales, which were $18.39.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

SIDNEY E. MANNING,
Corporal, Co. G, 167th Infantry.

Corporal Manning received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry near Breuvannes, France, July 28, 1918. Corporal Manning was in charge of an automatic rifle squad during an assault by his battalion on the strongly fortified heights overlooking the Ourcq river for the purpose of exploiting the successful passage of the stream. During the advance on the hill his platoon commander was killed and just as the crest was reached the platoon sergeant was wounded. Corporal Manning then assumed command of the platoon, which was near the center of the assaulting line and was meeting with desperate resistance. Though he himself was severely wounded and was the only survivor of his squad, this soldier led forward the 35 effectives remaining in the platoon against an enemy strong point which was wired, entrenched and defended by machine guns and dominated the entire Ourcq valley. He was repeatedly wounded, but he succeeded in getting a foothold at this strong point with but seven men remaining with him. While the latter consolidated their position under his direction, with the platoon on the flank, he held off a considerable number of the enemy 50 yards away by fire from his automatic rifle. He remained in this position until the entire line had been consolidated, when he crawled back to shelter, having received nine wounds. Mrs. Lizzie Manning, his mother, lives in Flomatin, Ala.

Pontiac, Mich.—"I have always found Dr. Pierce's medicines to be all that is recommended of them. I was in a nervous, run-down condition; also had stomach trouble very badly. I tried several doctors but they did not help me. A friend told me of the benefit she had received from Dr. Pierce's medicines. I quit the doctors and started taking 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and these medicines cured me completely. I can highly recommend them from actual experience."—Mrs. H. P. ## MYSTERY IN TRAGIC DEATH OF MILROY WOMAN IS UNSOLVED

Mrs. Joshua Grace is Found Dead on Kitchen Floor Sunday Morning,
Her Head Close to Fire.

FIRES STARTED IN TWO ROOMS

Her Husband is Overcome in Adjoining Bedroom From Effects of Gas Which Was Turned on.

CORONER IS INVESTIGATING

Mr. Grace, Former Druggist, in Critical Condition and Unable to Give Coherent Statement.

Mystery surrounds the death of Mrs. Sarah Grace, wife of Joshua Grace, former Milroy druggist, whose dead body was found in the kitchen of her home in Milroy Sunday morning at eight o'clock. She was lying on the floor, her head, which was badly burned, only a few inches from a lighted gas connection which had been pulled from the kitchen hot plate.

Mr. Grace was lying on the bed in an adjoining room unconscious from the effects of escaping gas, when neighbors broke into the house.
Mr. Grace was partially revived in a few hours, but not sufficiently to make coherent statement of the events of the night. His condition today was still regarded as critical and there was said to be some doubt about his recovery.

He was almost asphyxiated from the gas which had been turned on in the bedroom. The rubber hose connection on the heating stove was pulled loose before the gas was turned on.

Gas was turned on and lighted in the room west of the kitchen and north of the bedroom. Holes about a foot square were burned in the floor in the kitchen and the room to the west, and the woodwork in both scorched. The mantle in the west room was burned away and a lamp which was sitting on it fell to the floor.

Whether the tragedy was the result of a suicide pact may never be known. It is stated that Mr. Grace, when he regained partial consciousness, acted as if he might have been suffering from an overdose of morphine, in addition to being overcome by gas.

It is not believed that Mrs. Grace met death by burning because it would be a physical impossibility to lie down before a fire and burn to death. There are said to be no marks on Mrs. Grace's body to indicate that she was killed by a blow and dragged in front of the fire.

Decision as to whether a post-mortem should be held over the body of Mrs. Grace was withheld pending further investigation of the case by the county coroner, Dr. John M. Lee.
Dr. Lee reached the Grace home about eleven o'clock yesterday morning and soon afterward Mrs.
Grace's body was removed to E. O.
Anderson's undertaking establishment in Milroy.

Dr. Lee spent the remainder of the day in Milroy holding an inquest and went back this morning to take further testimony. He was expected today to question Paul Grace, the only child of the victims of the tragedy, who arrived from Chicago this morning and was expected to throw some further light on the mystery. No coroner's verdict was in prospect today because of the various angles of the case which had to be investigated.

Mrs. Grace's face was horribly burned, but not beyond recognition.
Her clothing was not even scorched.
She wore nightclothing and had her hair fixed as if ready to retire, but persons who were among the first in the house said that the bed did not indicate that she had ever lain down beside her husband.

Although the heat in the house was intense when neighbors broke in, the fire had not gained much headway and was easily extinguished.
The two gas fires evidently had not been burning long or they would have caused more damage than they did. The intensity of the heat was discovered by the fact that four tallow candles in candlesticks sitting on the mantle in the bedroom, were melted down and two of them fell to the floor.

Mrs. Wilbur Meek, who lives west across the street from the Grace home, saw smoke coming from the house, which caused an investigation to be made. John Kinnett and Mr.
Meek were among the persons who broke into the house and made the discovery. Mr. Grace was taken to the Meek home and was still being treated there today.

Mr. Grace sold the drug store which he ran in Milroy under the name of the Grace Drug company, to Dallas Copper, a few days ago,
having purchased the store of Mr.
Copper about two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Grace moved to Milroy at that time from Chicago.

Neighbors said that Mr. Grace had planned to leave for Chicago yesterday morning and that Mrs. Grace was to join him later. They had sold practically all of their household goods, preparatory to leaving, and a trunk and suitcase had been packed.

Many people were found in Milroy yesterday who recalled that Mrs.
Grace was morose and melancholy, and apparently was in ill health. It was reported that she had confided in friends that she had seen her son killed by a horse seventeen years ago, and that the tragedy had affected her deeply. It was also stated by neighbors that there had been a family of five children, only one of which survives.

It was the general belief in Milroy that Mr. Grace has met with financial reverses during his two years stay in Milroy. His age is believed to be about 68 years and his wife was thought to be several years younger. It was impossible to learn these facts from Mr. Grace on account of his dazed condition.

PROMINENT FRUIT MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Thomas T. Newby, Who Won Many Prizes During Life, Expires of Apoplexy at Carthage

FUNERAL TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.

Thomas T. Newby, age eighty-four years, well known fruit grower of near Carthage died at three o'clock Saturday afternoon of apoplexy. Mr. Newby was in good health and had been working in his prize orchard. Upon returning to the house, he dropped dead. Mr.
Newby won many prizes with the apples which he produced. He had many medals, both gold and silver, having taken prizes at Chicago, St.
Louis and San Francisco. He was the first man to successfully raise the Orange watermelon in this part of the country and was also the or-iginator of the famous Newby apple.

Besides the widow he is survived by one daughter, Miss Sarah Newby.
The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the Friends church in Carthage and burial will be made at Riverside cemetery.

ABANDONMENT IS CHARGED

Carrie Avery of This City Files Suit for a Divorce.

Mrs. Carrie Avery of this city has filed suit in the circuit court against Harvey Avery, charging abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment. She alleges that he abandoned her while they were living in Danville, Ill. January 13, 1917. The plaintiff alleges he was a continual and an habitual user of intoxicating liquor and spent his money on sprees, making it necessary for her to work for other people for a living.
He called her vile and infamous names, the complaint says. They were married November 20, 1909.
There are no children.

producer. A. J. Glover of Wisconsin, editor of Hoard's Dairyman, will speak on the part the dairy industry will play in the agriculture of the future. Walter L. Hauser, president of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeder's Association, and a prominent breeder, will discuss the part livestock organizations can play in the improvement of livestock.

Governor Frank A. Lowden of Illinois will also be one of the principal speakers.

The annual meetings of the Indiana State Dairy Association, Indiana Guernsey Breeder's Association, Indiana Jersey Cattle Club, Indiana Holstein-Persian Association, and the Indiana Herford, Shorthorn and Angus Breeders' Associations will be held the day before the rally. The executive committee of the Indiana Livestock Breeders' Association will also meet on the same day.

All are expected to remain for the next day's rally. County Agent Detrick is hoping to have a large delegation from this county attend the rally.

Chairman M. E. Foley of the Indiana State Council of Defense has requested that those who assisted Indiana in meeting the food production requirements of the federal government, during the recent emergency, attend and encourage the object of the state live stock rally.
The promulgation of a program of a greater and better production of live stock, in the state, as a means to permanent agricultural prosperity.
Mr. Foley's appeal to the defense workers in this connection says:—

"Patriotism in Indiana was a very practical thing. Of all the home enterprises none stands out so conspicuously successful as that made by the farmers of the state. They were asked to produce more wheat and the wheat was forthcoming.
They were asked to raise more hogs and the hogs were raised. They were asked to do these things when labor was the scarcest thing in the country."

RADICALS MAY CONTROL GERMANY

Heartened by Failure of Government to Stamp Out Spartacists, Plan to Proclaim Soviet Republic

ELEMENTS ARE ALL UNITING

Government Unable to Capture Revolutionists and at Same Time Guard Large Berlin Area

(By United Press.)

Stockholm, Mar. 17.—Martial law has been extended to the district near Berlin according to reports from that city today. The city was comparatively quiet Saturday night, it was said. A majority of the 15,000 insurgents were reported to have fled from Berlin to Brunswick.

Berlin, Mar. 17.—German radicals heartened by the failure of the government to completely stamp out the Spartacist uprising, are planning to proclaim establishment of a Soviet republic next month.

While the cabinet continues to struggle with the Spartacists and tries to untangle the apparently hopeless food, industrial and political problems, radical elements are uniting in perfecting their revolutionary program. They are confident that they will win from the exhausted government.

Even the government officials are beginning to admit the cabinet's position is seriously threatened. Although the government has by no means suffered military defeat, its troops have not succeeded in surrounding the Spartacists who are resisting desperately and cleverly. The government so far has not been able to master enough troops to capture the Spartacists and at the same time effectively guard the large Berlin area.

It has become evident that a large number of Spartacists who escaped from Berlin are stirring up further trouble in outlying districts.
Regardless of any claims which may

FLOOD WATER HOLDS STATIONARY TODAY

Many Believe Danger Will Pass if no More Rain Falls Though River is Near 1916.

FEW FAMILIES READY TO MOVE

The last two days and nights of rainfall have raised the water in the river until the bottom lands are completely covered. It was thought by some that if the water continued to rise in the next twenty-four hours as it has in the past few hours, it would be necessary for many families along the river to move from their homes in order to be out of danger. It can well be remembered the amount of suffering the flood of 1913 brought to this and other communities and many have been wondering if this recent rainfall would be a repetition of that time. The water had ceased to rise a few inches and it is thought that there will be little danger although it is within a few inches of the high water mark at this time in 1916. At that time many families in the lower parts of the city were forced to move from their homes to be free from the water.

A resident of this city recalled this morning that 68 years ago the water was at about the same stage that it is today. It was necessary to cross the river at that time in a canoe to reach a neighbors home.
Many families were making hasty preparations late last night and this morning to move from their homes to be out of danger but since the water has ceased to rise there is little danger of a repetition of the flood of six years ago.

Donald S. Cupier Obtains Money at Candy Kitchen and Leaves

Donald S. Cupier, who passed a check for $5 at Charles J. Caron's candy kitchen yesterday, with no funds in the bank, evidently left Rushville last night because the police were unable to find any trace of him this morning.

The check was on the Rushville National bank and was signed by Cupier. He had never at any time had Cupier's name. He had never had an account at the bank. Cupier procured two blank checks on the Rushville bank at the Arcade pool room and it is probable that he passed another piece of bogus paper before leaving.

FINAL ACTION ON TREATY DUE TODAY

Preliminary Pact, to All Intents a Final One, Will be Presented to Germans About Mar. 25

SEPARATE TREATIES FOLLOW

French Foreign Minister's Statement League Will Not be Included Brings Denial From Wilson

(By United Press.)

Paris, Mar. 17.—Final action on the military terms of the preliminary peace treaty with Germany was to be taken by the supreme war council this afternoon.

The treaty will be presented to the Germans about March 25, according to general opinion today.

While the forthcoming treaty with Germany is termed preliminary, it is to all intents and purposes final.

It fixes that country's military and naval status, defines its boundaries and disposes of the questions of reparation and economic freedom.
It will not be really effective, however, until it is ratified by all on a fixed percentage of the signatory nations. The period for ratification by the allied nations may be at least 40 to 60 days. This will give an opportunity for the calling of a special session of the American congress thus enabling the senate to act. Germany probably will be given a much shorter period in which to accept the terms.

Following this preliminary peace with Germany there will be separate treaties with Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria; then the general treaty which will clean up all loose ends, co-ordinate the separate pacts, establish any remaining interallied boundaries, etc.

Foreign Minister Pichon's claim that the league of nations will not be included in the preliminary peace treaty was emphatically denied today in American official circles.

President Wilson and other American commissioners insist on its inclusion, it was stated.

It was a surprise that Pichon should hold views to the contrary.
The president, it is known, intends to make a strong attempt for the inclusion of the league. He said that France and Great Britain needed the league even more than America.

Early peace is desired by President Wilson and he holds that inclusion of the league in the pact is vital to America.

Pichon yesterday declared that although the fundamental principles of the final peace are laid down in the preliminary treaty, the league of nations probably will not be included. He said that Wilson had not asked that it be included. The preliminary peace, according to Pichon, will end the state of war but will not permit Germany to resume full relations with other countries. The blockade will not be lifted completely before the final treaty, he added.

UNPARDONABLE SIN HEART CONDITION

Evangelist Miller Declares it is Knowingly and Intelligently Resisting God's Truth

Inspiring Talks at Sunday School and Epworth League Results in Several Confessions

Yesterday was a great day at the St. Paul's M. E. church and in spite of the inclemency of the weather, good congregations attended all of the church services and a number of people took their first step toward the Christian life in response to Evangelist Miller's invitation.

The evangelist preached two masterful sermons, one at the morning and one at the evening service, in the morning taking for his text,
"The Supreme Sacrifice," and in the evening, "The Unpardonable Sin," and gave inspiring talks at Sunday school and Epworth League, each of which resulted in several confessions.

The morning service was what the evangelist called a "Reconsecration Service" and his plea was for his hearers to make the "supreme sacrifice" and lay their all on the altar of God. He pleaded with the audience not to withhold anything in offering themselves to God.

"You can stop up all of the holes in a boat but one and yet that boat will sink in spite of all of the pumps you may have," he said.
"Don't when you give yourselves to God; try to hang on to one or two for your old sins but give your all —say 'Lord, here are my hands, my feet, my talents, my money, my service, my all.'"

"A Question for Scoffers, Skin-flints and Skeptics," is the subject of the sermon that the evangelist announced for this evening, the first meeting of the last week of the revival services.

Last night, preceding the sermon,
a beautiful duet, "In the Garden," was rendered by Mrs. Neff Ashworth and Dr. Frank Sparks.

"There is a sin unto death and

TO RECEIVE BIDS ON CEMENT ROADS APR. 7

County Commissioners to Let Contracts For Powers and Weir Permanent Highway

ALSO PECK MACADAM ROAD

Before adjourning late Saturday afternoon, the county commissioners decided to receive bids on the John H. Power cement road north of Rushville, the John R. Weir cement highway in Noble township and the Lafayette Peck macadam road in Orange township, on Monday, April 7, and ordered the county auditor to advertise for bidders.

The Weir cement road will join up with the Capp cement road which runs to the Rushville-Noble township line, and the Powers road will begin at the end of the brick pavement in North Main street and run to the Jackson township line.

The commissioners also will receive bids on April 7 on the contract for pointing up the stone work on the court house and calking the windows. The plans and specifications will be drawn by the county surveyor, Frank Catt, and will be on file in the auditor's office.

The board reappointed the old viewers, Leroy Lines and Charles D.
Alter, to make a new estimate for the Hangerford road on the Walker Rushville township line. The road was advertised for Saturday but no bids were received because the pre-war estimate was too low.

AUSTRIA'S PRESS MADE MONEY FAST

One of Best Vienna Financial Schemes an Intricate Machine for Printing Notes

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, Feb. 5. (By Mail).—Austria's flighty war finances have made the world wonder, but they were simple after all, as after the war stories reveal. The Hapsburg regime just "made money" to fight the war.

following enlightening explanations of how Austria's treasury kept supplied, though taxes in the dual monarchy were less during the war than in peace time, according to Minister Rasini.

One of the best Vienna financial schemes was a very intricate and speedy machine for printing war notes, which of course were the only money used in the Hapsburg empire during the war. Silver was unseen, and gold unheard of.

This elaborate and fast printing machine was in a public building in Vienna, and when the revolution broke and shooting took place outside the building, the employees in charge of the money machine fled in a hurry. Electrically operated the machine continued to run, and no one knew how to stop it.

It printed enormous quantities of new notes, according to the Czecho-Slovak minister, before someone finally stopped it by throwing a wrench into the mechanism.

Another Austrian finance ruse was to offer soldiers five days' permission for a hundred crown subscription to the war loan. This succeeded in stimulating investments to such an extent in the army that the offer had to be withdrawn.

Due to the shaky war finances, the crown is so low in value today that it is almost valueless as exchange, except for people going into the dual monarchy's area. A dollar will buy more than 20 crowns inside Austria. The actual value of a crown is estimated as low as three cents, but it is exchanged at higher value.

try. Herein lay the farmer's self sacrifice.

"Now that he has found a new avenue to prosperity, even without the stimulus of war time buying, the farmer is not going to abandon the intensive cultivation of his acres, nor the profit that comes from the scientific production of live stock.

gesting that they serve their own interests by joining in this movement for making Indiana the greatest live stock producing state in the union. They can make no better start in this direction than being present for the rally, in Indianapolis March 20th."

LOAN WORKERS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Earl H. Payne, County Chairman, Says That Rush County Will be Represented at Chicago

SECRETARY GLASS TO SPEAK

Earl H. Payne, who last week was appointed county chairman for the Victory Liberty loan campaign which opens April 21, announced today that Rush county would be represented at the seventh district federal reserve conference in Chicago Friday when organization plans will be discussed. Mr. Payne said that he would attend the conference and that Lon Link, T. M. Green, Will M. Sparks, Theodore Heeb and Mrs. A. L. Stewart or Miss Anna Bohannon might be present. Other bankers from the county and some township workers may also attend, he said.

The loan workers from throughout the district will meet at the LaSalle hotel at 11 a. m. and a buffet luncheon will be served at noon. In the afternoon the state organizations will meet and in the evening at 6:30 a banquet will be served, at which Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, will speak.

MACHINE HITS BUGGY

Wherle Lakin and Bert Dell figured in an accident in East Eleventh street Saturday night which resulted in little damage and no injury to any of the occupants. Mr. Lakin was driving a machine which struck Mr. Dell's buggy and the front wheel and single tree of the buggy were damaged to some extent, but the machine was not hurt. Mrs. Dell and child were in the buggy.

DO NOT BE TROUBLED BY BIG SHOE BILLS

Fifteen months of service from a pair of Neolin Soles is claimed by F. T. Evans of Seattle, Washington. "Then I had them half-soled and they are still good," says Mr. Evans. Big shoe bills do not trouble the man who gets wear like this from his shoes. If you are interested in cutting down your shoe expense, be sure that the shoes you buy have Neolin Soles. You can get them on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children; and they are available everywhere for re-soles, too. Neolin Soles are made by Science to give long wear, and to be comfortable and waterproof. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also manufacture Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Spivey Wants To Tell You About

Gasoline Engines. Yes, I have them from one and one-half horse power up to any size you want. When you buy one of these engines you know you are getting the best on the market.

Then when it comes to a One-Row Cultivator, did you ever see the one I am selling? If you did not, be sure and see it. You never saw one similar to it, for it is in a class all alone—nothing like it, nothing nearly the same. You want to see this One-Row Cultivator before you buy yours; and then again, my Two Row Cultivator has so many features that no other two-rows has, that you want to know about it. It will appeal to you all right. But I am ahead of my story.

Corn Planters come before Cultivators, and if I don't show you the best Corn Planter you ever saw, with more good features on it than all the other planters combined, then you blame me for it. I have the Planter that is perfect and the only one I ever saw that any one can plant corn with. And again, I am ahead of my story.

I should have told you about Disc Harrows and Soil Pulverizers. You can't plant corn without getting the ground in perfect condition, and to do that you must have a Disc Harrow, and above all, a Soil Pulverizer—the best tool the farmer ever used. Cultivate your wheat with a Soil Pulverizer and it will pay for itself in the increase of the yield. Ask the man who uses one.

Now, the Good Wife will say, if you buy all these tools, what can I buy to help me. And I have figured this all out for you, too. You need a Primrose Cream Separator that will save your cream and make you more money from your cows, and perhaps save you some. Good idea, is it not?

And, by the way, what about a Manure Spreader, you have the manure, and why not spread it. I can also rig you out to

And a good Wagon is very essential to a good farmer, and every farmer knows what a Webber Wagon is—that is the kind I sell. Good judgment, isn't it?

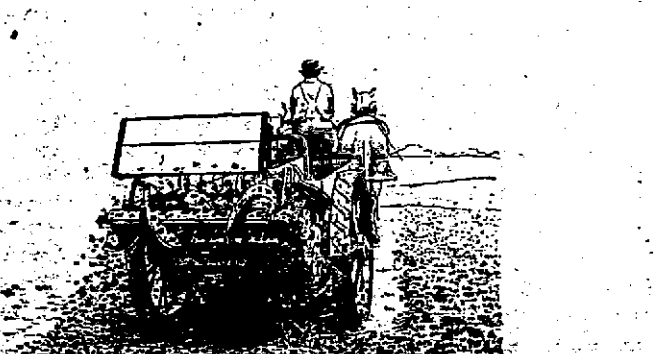

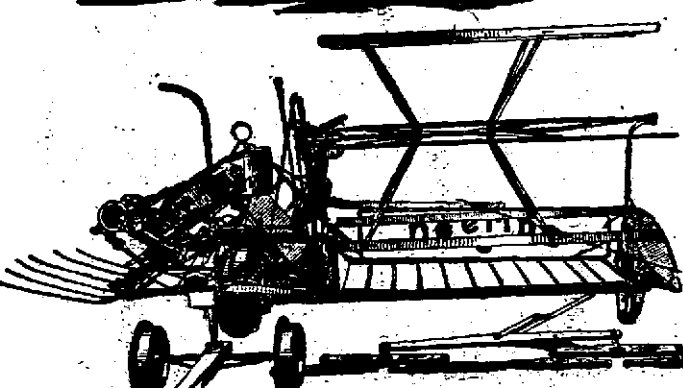

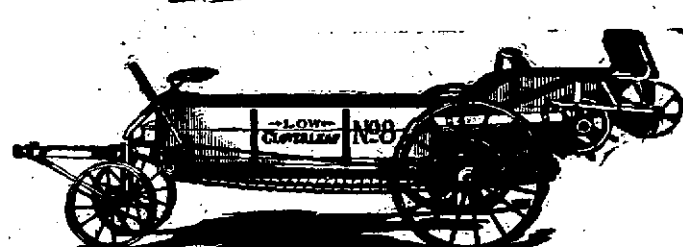

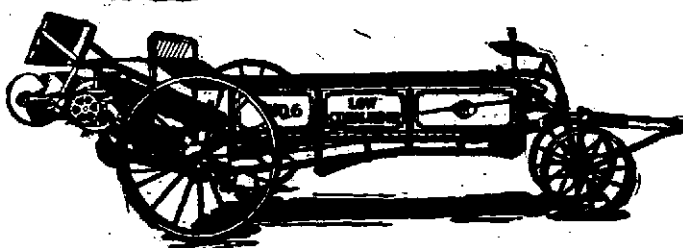

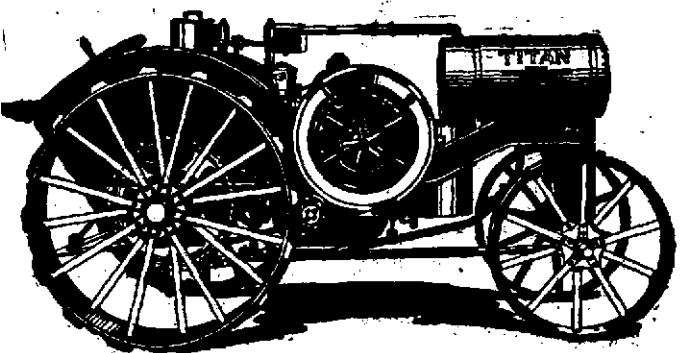

But I forgot to tell you about my Repair Department. If you want repairs for your Binder or Mower or any other machine, see me. I have what you want. Remember—You want what you want when you want it.

And don't forget that you have been thinking about that Tractor to do your breaking and to get your ground in order. I have two kinds—the Titan and the International. The Titan was never beaten in a contest and when you see the International, you will know why I took the agency. It's a Dandy.

I also have the McCormick and Deering Binders and Mowers, and all kinds of Hay Tools, but then I will take that up a little later. Don't forget the McCormick and Deering Binder Twine, or the Motor Truck of different sizes to do your hauling with. And by the way, when I was talking about Gas Engines, I forgot to say that you will want a Grinder, too.

In other words this store is for the Farmer, and I want every farmer in Rush County to be in this store. I have been dealing with the farmers of Rush county all my life and I know that they appreciate Service—and that is what I am going to give you. And in order to do this, I must have a volume of business in order to keep a machine expert here to look after your machinery troubles and it also takes lots of business to keep prices down, and I believe you are going to appreciate what I am doing for you and I know that I will appreciate your co-operation.

Edward Dubank has bought 168 acres of the old Jacob S. Blackledge farm northeast of the city from Alfred Blackledge for $26,800. He sold 80 of the tract to Mrs. Emily Coleman for $10,500 and four acres to Henry Miller for $600. Rolla Zorne bought another 80 acres of what was formerly the Jacob Blackledge farm from Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Collin of Indianapolis.

The barber shop will be moved to the Bowen room formerly occupied by Wiltse Five & Ten Cent store in Main street.

Bolshevism: This idea is changing, especially as the radicals have advocated equal representation of employers in all soviets, regardless of their numerical inferiority. It is now proposed that the bundesrat (upper legislative house) be abolished and a new soviet congress established in its place, representing all working groups. This would provide representation for the people according to their social status, while the reichstag would represent them according to localities.

Supporters of such an organization are growing rapidly. The government may provide for it in its constitution, hoping thus to avoid the April revolution, but there is a possibility that the radicals—confident they have the upper hand—will demand even more, although their program of government changes has not been made public. It is known however, that the radicals believe it is necessary for the workers to exercise direct control over all industries. They fear otherwise that many industries will remain idle, as the capitalists are not eager to reopen their factories, in view of their impending socialization.

The seventeen-year locust, an insect extremely interesting to naturalists, but thoroughly detested by nurserymen and owners of orchards is due to appear in this county in large number during 1919.

The real name of this insect is the periodical cicada. It spends seventeen years slowly developing underground in infested localities. Its emergence in such localities every seventeen years has been observed in this country every seventeen years since 1715.

Enormous swarms will appear in parts of the northern states either in the last week of May or the first week of June. No one can fail to recognize their presence in the given localities, for they are a noisy and a strenuous race. After five weeks the brief existence of the cicada ends in exhaustion and death.

Considerable injury is done to young orchards and nursery trees by these insects. No young orchards should be set out this year until fall, when the danger from the swarm of cicadas is over. Trees already in growth should be treated with sprays and whitewashing at the time of emergence of the cicadas.

The southern state harbor broods of the thirteen-year cicada, which while similar in appearance and habits, is a separate and distinct species from the seventeen-year locust.

Using Telephones

Every man, woman and child in the United States made two hundred telephone calls last year, it is estimated,—on paper. That estimate is arrived about the same way the national wealth is divided. Every so often our statisticians, which we have with us always, figure out that each individual has so much money, when in reality the majority have much below the average.

So it is with the telephone calls. The number of telephones in use at the close of the year was 21,842,000,000, or an average of one for every nine inhabitants, according to the United States bureau of census.

In estimating the number of calls, the statisticians figure that the woman who talks to all her neighbors every day, utilizing her spare time that way, makes up for the infants and the mutes who couldn't use a phone if they had one.

UNPARDONABLE SIN IS HEART CONDITION

I do not say that he shall pray for it," from John 5:16, was the text of last night's sermon.

"There are many discussions and questions," began the speaker, "as to just what is and what is not the unpardonable sin—the sin for which, as the Bible says, there is no use to pray, and the person committing it, by so doing forfeits all hope of seeing God.

"If I were to say that the unpardonable sin is the sin against the Holy Ghost and sins against man may be forgiven, then I would have the authority to go to a murderer of men, to the worst outcast in the red light district and say to them that salvation is theirs if they desire to take it. They will answer me that their sins are too great and yet I have the promise of God that all manner of sins are forgiven unto men. God is anxious and willing to forgive.

"The question comes up then whether the unpardonable sin is an act of the soul or a condition of the heart. Does one result from the other? The unpardonable sin is not lying, stealing, swearing, house-breaking, adultery or murdering or any of these things that we see accounts of in the daily papers. It must be then a condition of the heart. What produces this heart condition? It must be wilfully committed.

"The irremissible sin mentioned by the Saviour is the one committed by the wilful, disobedient, rebellious sinner, the man or woman who knowingly and intelligently resists God's truth and tramples under foot the blood of Christ. There is nothing clearer set forth, and it is possible to reach a place in sin that the individual is damned and lost as if he heard the words 'depart from me you workers of iniquity.'

"It does not mean that God is not the same yesterday, today and forever but the change is in us. We, when we refuse to answer God's call, get to the place where we can not see and believe and when we can not believe we can not be saved.

"Many of us may go along in this way until we are awakened by the red hand of death and rushed to the judgment bar of God unprepared."

his talk with a number of convincing and appropriate stories and ended by appealing to his hearers to take their stand for God before they reached the place where they had committed the unpardonable sin.

MAKES VALUATION HERE LOOK LOW

Appraisal of Farm Land in Clinton County by a Member of the State Tax Board

Plans Here to Make Real Estate Average (About $140—Clinton is Similar to Rush)

Judging by an assessment of farm land in Clinton county, which is very similar to Rush county, by a member of the state tax board, local land values for taxation purposes will have to be trebled in order to come up to the expectations of the state board.

Before the new law was passed, local taxing officials estimated that if they could bring the appraised value of Rush county farm land and improvements up to an average of $125, they would have complied with the terms of the law calling for "true cash value." Since the tax board has given its version of the new law, the county assessor, Earl Priest, has revised his opinion and told the township assessors at their conference here Saturday that land and improvement would have to average from $135 to $140.

But the appraisement in Clinton county by a member of the state board fixed the true cash value at figures ranging between $150 and $200. Of an average of about $140 is reached here, there is every reason to believe that a reassessment will be ordered by the state board, or an increase will be put on all classes of property in order to bring the valuation up to where it should be.

bers own farms and all of the members came from the country and know more about farm values than most men. What they could tell the average man about the value of land in different parts of the state, and the different kinds of land, would fool a lot of people. One of the state tax commissioners went to Clinton county, his former home, and assisted the local assessors in fixing values on the farms this year. Taking the old assessments as a basis, it looks a good deal like the values of land in Rush county.

Local valuations on the tax duplicates now run from $40 to $55 according to the 1915 appraisement. Here are the 1915 and the 1919 valuations by townships in Clinton county and will give some idea of what may be the result in Rush county.

	1915 Valuation	New Valuation
Center	$50.50	$200.00
Jackson	33.42	185.00
Perry	45.56	165.00
Washington	43.08	165.00
Ross	43.40	145.00
Owen	44.37	150.00
Warren	43.66	150.00
Forest	47.71	165.00
Johnson	48.54	155.00
Sugar Creek	46.83	150.00
Kirklin	45.85	165.00
Morgan	45.50	145.00
Union	42.71	150.00

On the other hand, Mr. Sims, the member of the state tax board, says that the tax rate in Clinton county will be reduced to one-third the present levy, and that taxes paid next year will be no more. Reports have not been received from any of the township assessors in Henry county on this year's work, but a comparison will be interesting.

GARDEN SURROUNDED BY TALL BUILDINGS GROWS

Will a garden grow among high buildings?

Yes, say the garden specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture, if there is enough sunlight and the right kind of soil. The picture shows the preliminary steps in making a garden in one of the most unpromising sites imaginable, but that garden grew, although a tall theater was on one side of it and other buildings were on other sides.

Areas that the sun does not shine upon for at least four hours a day should not be planted, according to the garden specialists. The foliage crops, such as lettuce, spinach, parsley, kale, and chard, will thrive fairly well when they get three or four hours of sunlight a day. Such crops as tomatoes, eggplant and peppers should have an abundance of sunshine, at least five or six hours a day.

TO TAKE UP PLAIS FOR DRIVE

Franklin, Mar. 17.—Fred Hoke, Indianapolis district chairman of the Methodist Minute Men, and Dr. E. R. Stafford, pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Episcopal church at Delaware, O., will open a series of sub-district minute men rallies at a meeting here tonight. The meeting is to be conducted in connection with the Methodist Missionary Centenary movement.

Hoke will speak tomorrow evening at Columbus and Wednesday evening at Seymour. Dr. Stafford will address meetings at Scottsburg Thursday evening and at Jeffersonville Friday evening. Minute men organizations and preliminary plans for a financial drive will be taken up at these meetings.

If you started a home garden last season, how about making it a permanent food producer?

A bed of asparagus is known to have given continuous service for more than thirty years, and asparagus is one of the first of the spring vegetables. A row of blackberries along a garden fence has produced abundant crops for twelve successive years. A few hills of rhubarb have provided delicious sauce and helped with the making of pies season after season, with very little cost or attention. Strawberries require more care, but they furnish the first ripe fruit in the springtime and a very small plot of ground in one corner of the garden will supply the family.

Put into a home garden a little money, knowledge gained from competent advice and your spare time. Draw from it an insight into the workings of nature, healthful exercise and a reduction in your food bills. A home garden is a good thing to keep going year after year.

The Loyal Daughters of the Main Street Christian church will hold a penny supper Friday evening March 28.

The Missionary society of the Fairview church will give a penny supper at Falmouth hall Saturday evening, Mar. 22, from 5 to 8. Every one cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Aikin entertained yesterday a number of guests with a four course twelve o'clock dinner party, at their country home north of the city. The centerpiece for the table was a cluster of carnations and the color scheme was

green and white, representing St. Patrick's day. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gardner, and children Thelma and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow and daughter Lola, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wright and son John, and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson. Games and music occupied the guests during the afternoon.

A pretty quiet home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McAllister in West Second street when their daughter, Miss Alvirna M. McAllister became the bride of Harry F. Markley, a surgeon in the base hospital in New York. Only the immediate family was present. Mrs. Markley accompanied her husband to Chicago, where he will go on to New York, and Mrs. Markley will return to this city. Mr. Markley expects to be discharged from the service soon. The only out-of-town guests were the Misses Edna and Lena Wilman of Indianapolis, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Will Meredith Saturday evening. As an introduction a selection of several musical numbers was first given by the club. The anxious and wondering subjects then became the principal actors in the unique installation ceremony of many thrills and amusing situations throughout and which ended when the perspiring but very submissive victims were ushered into the dining room and invited to join the other members in a bountiful pitch-in supper which they had prepared for the occasion. Those completing the required course are Mary Maude Reed, Agnes Poston, Louise Pitman and Churchill Allen. Deryl Case led the meeting.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eubank, who will move to their farm north of the city soon, the members of the Yomo club gave a pitch-in supper for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Fegley in East Ninth street last evening. The dining table, where the delicious pitch-in supper was served, was adorned with a large French basket filled with white croques and ferns. Covers were laid for twenty-five guests.

The Loyal Daughters of the Main Street Christian Sunday school will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Elsie Ward in North Main street. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Russell Bearinger, Miss Frances Mahin and Mrs. Edna Crum. As this will be a business meeting a large attendance is desired.

Miss Bertha Helm will be hostess for the S. E. T. club tomorrow afternoon at her home in West Fifth street.

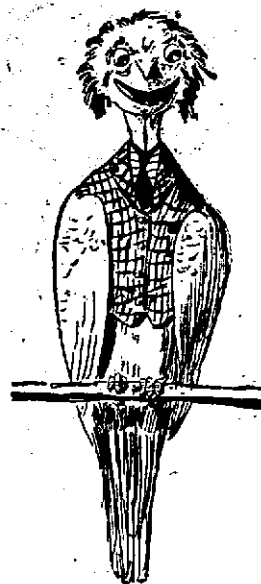

Members of the O. N. T. club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Osborn in North Harrison street.

The Psi Chi Xi meeting which was to have been held tomorrow evening, has been postponed until later in the week.

The Ladies Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lon Link at her home in North Perkins street. Mrs. Mari Spivey will be the leader and Mrs. Agatha Ward will furnish the music for the afternoon. All members and ladies of the church are invited.

The members of Bernice Encampment I. O. O. F., will enjoy a supper next Friday evening at 7 o'clock when they will assemble for the purpose of conferring the patriarchal degree upon a large class.

The fifth episode of "The Lure of the Circus," is the offering at the Mystic theatre tonight, a blind pig comedy is also on the program. Tomorrow Tom Mix is on the program in "Fame and Fortune."

Dorothy Gish at Princess

Dorothy Gish in "The Hope Cheat" is the offering at the Princess theatre tonight. Tomorrow Charles Ray in "String Beans" is advertised. Isn't that a typical Ray title "String Beans?" And it is also quite appropriate for the efforts of the sharper to swindle a gullible lot of farmers with a fake cannery project for beans is the basis of the story, in which Ray is starred.

It is a Thomas H. Ince picture released by Paramount. These facts, coupled with the declaration that Charles Ray is to star and that sweet little Jane Novak is his leading woman—ought to attract record crowds. There is a fine cast, and the story is one of those real country town dramas with lots of humor and human interest and a great character role for Charles Ray.

The efforts of a swindler to get the confidence and coin of the gullible natives of a small town on a string bean cannery project form the basis of the plot. The story is said to be highly amusing, full of human nature and containing a pretty romance.

Mr. Ray as a young farm hand with a literary turn, goes to the local newspapers of a country town and asks for a job which he gets. The proprietor, a typical country editor, is fighting a scheme advanced by a crook to found a bean cannery and the mayor is in favor of it. A big mass meeting is held and the editor is to contest the movement, but falls ill at the last moment. Ray takes his place but gets stuck in the speech and escapes in consternation. Later he prevents the sharper from robbing the mayor, gains the love of the latter's daughter and distinguishes himself. The natives are saved and the swindler is caught with the goods.

PARIS GIRLS WANT YANKEE HUSBANDS

Finds That Americans Are Greatly Admired.

To get an American husband seems to be the aim of more than 40 per cent of the Parisian young women. At all events, that is the result of an inquiry conducted by L'Oeuvre, a Paris daily newspaper, which publishes a series of letters setting forth the reasons that have guided the writers to give preference to Americans over their compatriots.

Those who would rather be married to Frenchmen base their predilection largely on patriotic grounds, but a large percentage of young French women confess to a whole-hearted admiration of the average American's breezy good humor and courtesy of manner toward the other sex. Several French girls who have had an opportunity to observe American home life appreciate the easy camaraderie between the sexes, and they come to the conclusion that a good comrade must make a good husband.

Some fair writers say that French Romeos are given to talking overmuch and are too fussy about their personal appearance. The question as to whether a man ought to shave or not seems to agitate the French feminine mind considerably, and the voting is about equal between the smooth-shaven American and his French brother with a mustache.

One girl raises the curious objection that "Americans eat too much," while another disapproves of "the heavily framed American spectacles with the huge round lenses which so many Americans affect."

WAR SHRINES SOON WILL HONOR HEROES

Beautiful war memorials have been proposed in many cities to honor the American soldiers who fought overseas. A great campanile has been designed by Architect Robert C. Lafferty of New York city. The magnificent shrine would include a clock, chimes and pipe organ, and the lofty tower would be surmounted by the figure of democracy. Lafferty's plan is to have one of these erected in every large city of the nation as a war memorial.

GERMAN SOLDIERS GET JOBS QUICKLY

Surprisingly Little "Industrial Dislocation" has Resulted From Demobilization of Huns.

Employment Problem is Handled by Bureaus in Each Town Who Look out for Openings.

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the Army of occupation, Feb. 20. (By Mail.)—An investigation of the industrial situation in the occupied area by the Intelligence department of the Third Army shows that surprisingly little "industrial dislocation" has resulted from the influx demobilization of the German armies in this region.

Despite the inpouring of thousands of demobilized soldiers the number of unemployed in February was only 2,535 in the whole area of over five thousand square miles, with a population of over half a million. At that time about 88 percent of the soldiers from the Rhineland had been demobilized and returned to their homes. Although the exact figures upon the number of returned soldiers are unavailable, they will run into tens of thousands.

The employment problem is handled by bureaus in each town or village which puts the returned soldier in touch with openings for employment. Employers in need of labor report to these bureaus, where the offers are submitted to applicants. In this way thousands were put back to work with the loss of little time.

During forced unemployment, the State pays every unemployed man a sum ranging from four marks to eight marks per day, according to the size of his family. German authorities complain that this "unemployment pay" is too high and offers

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

Little incentive to seek labor, because the common wage for day labor is from five to eight marks per day. The new high unemployment payment is a fruit of the revolution, but the rule is being strictly enforced in the Rhineland, in spite of the complaints of employers. Many places for returned soldiers were provided by the immediate discharge of women workers, wherever they had taken the jobs of men. Although the pay for women was much lower, even where they were doing the same work as men, the employers were forced by the pressure of public sentiment and in some towns by municipal orders to discharge women.

Owing to the agricultural nature of the area, the employment problem presented less difficulties than in the centralized industrial centers. A large percentage of the demobilized soldiers went back returned to their farms and vineyards. About three-fourths of the total number of unemployed are in the four larger towns of Coblenz, Trier, Neuwied and Montabaur.

GERMAN AIR TOLL 729

Copenhagen, Mar. 17.—Seven hundred and twenty-nine persons were killed and 1,754 injured in aerial attacks by allied forces on German territory up to Nov. 6, 1918, according to official figures made public in Berlin.

Ugly, Unsightly Pimples Are Signals of Bad Blood

Give Heed to the Warning. Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire. They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin. Go to your drugstore, and get a bottle of S. S. ONE MAN OPERATES BOTH TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENT

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

It Solves The Farm Help Problem

With two 14-inch bottoms, under average plowing conditions, the new Moline Universal Tractor, Model D, plows 9 acres in 10 hours, as much as ordinary 3-plow machine. The superior efficiency of the Moline Universal is due to its higher speed, 3 1/2 miles an hour, two bottoms at 3 1/2 miles giving the same number of plow-miles as three bottoms at 2 1/2 miles.

Plowing at 3 1/2 miles an hour gives ideal results, the ground being pulverized more thoroughly than at slower speeds, with less air space. Tough sod that cannot be turned at all at 2 1/2 miles an hour is plowed with ease.

Perfect work is assured with the Moline Universal through the advantageous position of the operator, who sits on the implement, where he must sit in order to do good work. The Moline Universal is easily handled, turns short, and backs as readily as it goes forward.

Waste of time in the field is eliminated and the tractor kept at productive work a maximum number of hours a day through a complete electric starting and lighting system. The Moline Universal is the only tractor thus regularly equipped.

The secret of the speed and power of the Moline Universal lies in its perfected overhead-valve engine and two-wheel construction. The engine develops 18 horsepower at the belt, and 9 at the drawbar, every ounce of which is available for pull. There are no dead wheels to drag along that only carry weight and steer.

For plowing in extremely soft ground, the Moline Universal is equipped with a differential lock that enables the two drive wheels to be locked together, doubling their pulling power.

The light weight of the Moline Universal, 3380 pounds, and its high clearance, 29 1/2 inches, make it adapted for all other field work, besides plowing. With it one man can plant 40 acres a day, cultivate 20 acres a day, or do any other work with equal speed. It is the ideal tractor for any sized farm, practically eliminating horses and solving the farm help problem.

Call and let us show you this remarkable machine.

MINES ENDANGER OCEAN VESSELS

High Explosives Still Float in Lanes of Commerce.

NAVIES TO SWEEP THE SEAS

Known Fields Will Be Cleared and Derelicts Will Be Picked Up—Danger May Extend for Years, and Mines, Freed From Moorings, May Be Swept Miles by Ocean Currents—Many Ships Sunk.

Untold thousands of unexploded mines, planted in navigable waters during the four years of war, still linger in the lanes of commerce like seeds of death, a constant menace to the toilers of the deep. Weeks back the sting of the U-boat was drawn. The signing of the armistice halted further ravaging of the submarine, and shipping sailed forth no longer in dread of the torpedo or the guns of the undersea craft. Nevertheless ships are endangered by other marine agencies of death, and the mariner cannot be sure that these hazards won't lie in his path for months to come and do him harm when and where least expected.

Already the navies of the allied nations have undertaken the hazardous work of clearing the recognized mine fields in European waters, and by the use of wire drags propose to remove every mine that still is held in position by its moorings. The chief danger to the mine sweepers and to commerce in general lies, however, in the derelict mine, which has been washed from its original position and is likely to be found in the North sea, in the Gulf stream, on the shores of the United States or in any other location to which the current, tide or winds may drive the mine with its charge of T.N.T., which is notably inert to the action of water and will retain its destructive potentialities until the charge is exploded.

Many Ships Sunk by Mines.

Early in December the British warship Cassandra struck a mine in the Baltic and went down with the loss of 11 men. In January a British freighter foundered off Middlesborough after hitting a mine and her crew was lost. A few days later the French ship Chaoula stumbled upon a mine in the Straits of Messina and went to the bottom in four minutes. Four hundred and sixty persons on board were lost. The British sloop Penarth was sunk by a mine 23 miles from the mouth of the Tyne. Scarcely a day passes, in fact, that some British, Norwegian, Swedish or other craft is not sunk or crippled by a mine in the North sea. Navigation has become so hazardous that many craft proceed only by day, thus lessening the danger of coming into contact with the dreaded derelicts.

Official figures issued by the Dutch and Danish authorities give some idea of the number of mines that have been torn from their moorings during the recent war. At the close of the first two years of war more than 500 mines had been beached along the north coast of Jutland. By March 1, 1918, 918 mines had been washed upon the shores of Holland. From 1914 to 1918, the Dutch picked up along the short seacoast of the Netherlands no fewer than 5,050 contact mines.

The belligerents were not the only European nations which employed mines. The Dutch, the Danes, the Norwegians and the Swedes all planted defensive mine fields, and upon numerous occasions these weapons got adrift and added to the perils of shipping.

Sweeping the Seas for Mines.

During the war mine sweepers were constantly at work. Great Britain had no fewer than 700 craft to do this work around the British Isles alone. Each month the mine sweepers combed 460,000 square miles of the sea, and to accomplish this they steamed more than 1,250,000 miles. In 1917 they garnered 43,000 German mines. In 1918 up to October 1 they had harvested 14,000 mines. In this hazardous work more than 150 British sweepers were blown to atoms and their crews lost.

Now all the allies are preparing to sweep the planted areas in an effort to gather up every possible mine. In some sections the removal of mines has begun. In other areas the fields will not be touched until after the signing of peace terms. The task before the nations is to sweep the seas free of the vast army of submarine weapons, and do it, despite the hazards involved, with the least possible delay. But no matter how rapidly this work may be prosecuted there still remains the disquieting likelihood of a considerable percentage of these mines breaking loose or being carried, anchor and all, into areas remote from their original position.

Died of disease—Corp. Emmett Demaree, Madison.

Wounded, degree undetermined—James Albert McIntyre, Linton.

Wounded slightly—Private Emory E. Colliet, Leopold; Private Charles H. Albrecht.

The commander-in-chief in the name of the president, has awarded the distinguished-service cross to the following named soldiers of Indiana for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names.

Private Gustav Gjerstead, Company D, 9th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near Mayonville, France, November 1, 1918. While assisting a squad to flank a machine-gun nest which was delaying his company's advance, Pvt. Gjerstead was twice painfully wounded. He persisted in continuing in the advance until another wound forced him to the rear for treatment. Home address, Gary.

Private Dean F. Smiley (deceased), 6th Marines, 73th Company. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Etienne, France, October 9, 1918. Pvt. Smiley rushed a hostile machine-gun nest single-handed, killing three of the crew and capturing the remainder. While taking his prisoners to the rear, this gallant soldier was killed by enemy artillery fire. Next of kin, Mrs. Jennie Smiley, mother, Goshen.

Sergt. Benjamin Dickens, Company E, 16th infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action in the Forest of Argonne, France, October 4, 1918. Although he was severely wounded early in the attack, Sergt. Dickens refused to be evacuated, and he took command of the company and led it to the objective. Shortly afterwards the enemy made a strong attack against the position, but, although he was scarcely able to walk he so successfully led his company that the superior number of the enemy was forced to withdraw. Home address, Broad Ripple.

SOLDIER AIDED IN THE KILLING OF ARCH DUKE

Private Frank Hobel Reported to be One of Four Men Who Plotted The Assassination.

LOCATED AT CAMP SHERMAN

(By United Press.)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio March 17.—Intelligence officers are investigating the story told by Frank Hobel, private in the base hospital, that he was one of the four men who plotted the assassination of the Austrian arch duke, which plunged the world in the war.

Hobel, after the assassination, was given $300 by his father to leave Serbia. He then took passage for America and landed in New York six weeks later. He then went to Ohio and secured a position in the steel mines.

When the United States came into the war Hobel was drafted and sent to Camp Sherman where he has been since. Most of the time was spent in the hospital where he took treatment for tuberculosis. Intelligence officers said today that their investigation so far indicated Hobel is telling the truth.

CHAMBERS FIRELESS COOKING GAS RANGE!

A Combination Gas Range and Fireless Cooker

Electrical Engineer,
And Louise M. Williams,
Domestic Scientist,
Tribune Institute Staff

REPORT OF CONSTRUCTION AND GAS EFFICIENCY.

THE CHAMBERS FIRELESS Gas Range has much the same general external appearance as other standard gas stoves, except for the cylindrical hood over one of the rear burners, the pulley weight that operates this hood and the special safety devices that fasten the oven door and turn off the oven heat and close the damper, thus sealing the oven and converting it into a fireless cooker. The fastener on the oven door is so constructed that pressure from within would cause it to open—a precaution against the remote possibility of accident.

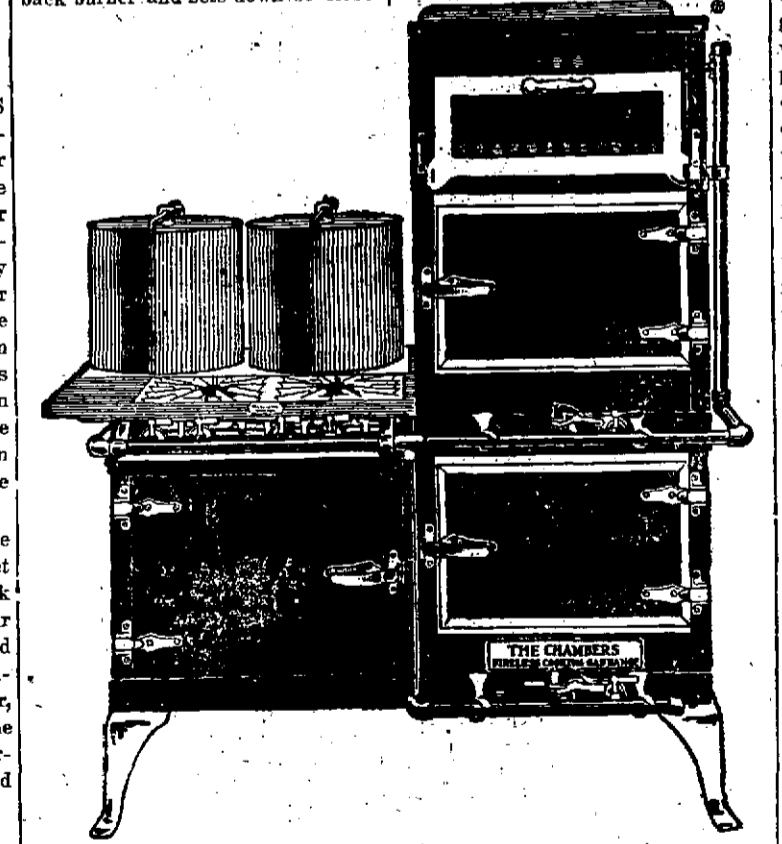

The body and frame of the range is constructed of cast iron and sheet steel, with a heavy baked black enamel covering. There are four top burners, a simmerer, an oven and a broiler. The oven is heavily insulated and provided with a damper, which must be wide open while the flame is on and tightly closed afterward, so that the heat will be sealed burning and the damper closed, which precludes the possibility of danger.

A steel insulated hood, 10½ inches wide and 9½ inches high, fits over the back burner and sets down so close-

burner consumed the gas at the rate of fifteen cubic feet an hour.

The oven heats up quickly and the gas consumption is only at the rate of twenty-four cubic feet an hour, a saving of from fifty to 100 per cent, as compared with the majority of gas ovens. In fifteen minutes a temperature of 550 degrees Fahrenheit was reached, while 650 degrees Fahrenheit—a maximum tempera-

ly on the stove top that a fireless cooker compartment is formed around utensils which have been heated over the burner. A steel rod elevates and lowers this hood and the counter weight assists in its easy movement.

The top gas burners showed a heat efficiency comparable with the best. The medium burner, with a gas consumption rate of ten cubic feet an hour, heated one quart of water in a covered saucepan to 200 degrees Fahrenheit in five and a quarter minutes, while the same test repeated over the giant burner required only four and a half minutes. This

ture for fireless operations—was reached in twenty minutes. At this temperature the gas was turned off and the damper closed. The oven showed a temperature of 425 degrees Fahrenheit half an hour later, while in an hour the temperature was 325 degrees (moderate heat), and in two hours 225 degrees Fahrenheit.

In cooking with the Chambers fireless gas range no extra utensils are necessary. The heat is applied directly to the food and after the necessary length of time the gas is turned off and the food continues to cook by the confined heat in the oven or under the hood, as the case may be.

The hood is a special feature built to save fuel when long time cooking on top of the range is necessary. Because the greater part of cooking, by far, is done on top of the stove, the hood is a very economical and advantageous feature. The food is placed over the flame and the hood lowered until it stops automatically within two inches of the surface of the stove. When the gas is turned off a clutch is released which allows the hood to be completely lowered. The cooking then continues by means of the heat stored in the hood, which ordinarily would pass into the air and be wasted. The hood cannot be completely lowered until the gas is turned off. This safety feature makes the fireless hood "fool proof," for it is impossible to shut out the air while the flame is on. This, if done, would extinguish the flame, leave the gas flowing and result in spoiled food or a possible explosion.

A New Way to Save Gas, and Time and Trouble

rooster was split in half to give an equal portion for the two tests in the fireless oven and the usual gas stove. The amount of gas used in the Chambers range was 8 cubic feet, as compared with 15 cubic feet used in searing and roasting in the gas oven. The fireless-cooked section was slightly more tender, but not quite so brown as the other half, but both were remarkably eatable, considering the toughness of the bird. The Chambers again shows a saving of about 88 per cent in gas consumption with slightly superior results.

Meats—To roast meats the food is placed (with no water) in a covered roaster in the cold oven. The gas is turned on for from five to eight minutes a pound, according to the kind

twenty, or thirty minutes per pound, longer by fireless. The book of directions furnished with every range will give the housewife an idea of the approximate times for all cooking processes, but she must use her past experience and common sense to modify the directions to suit her own specific needs and conditions.

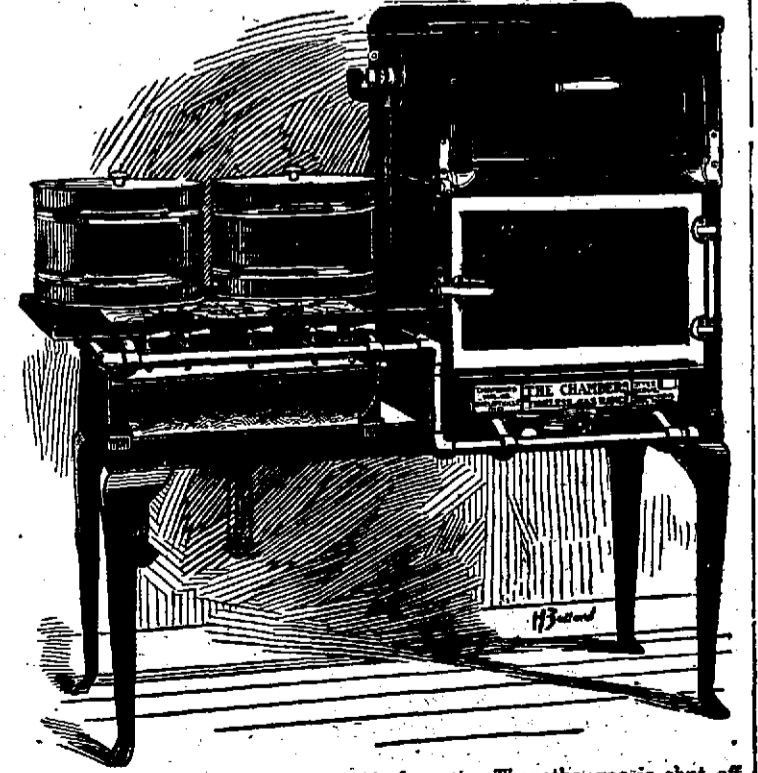

POTATOES—Potatoes of equal size (each 6 ounces) were baked in the Chambers fireless oven and in another gas oven. In the fireless range the potatoes were placed in the cold oven the gas turned on for twenty minutes, then shut off and the potato allowed to cook in the fireless for 30 minutes longer. This required 8½ cubic feet of gas, in comparison with 21 cubic feet necessary to bake the potatoes in the other range, about 150 per cent saving of gas. In this case the greater mealiness and fluffiness of the fireless baked potatoes were noticeable.

CAKE—The cake test was very successful. A batter sufficient to make two layers was mixed and one layer baked in each oven. For the fireless range, the oven was heated eight minutes previous to putting in the cake, then the gas was left on five minutes after the layer was in. This was followed by fifteen minutes of fireless cooking. The results were excellent; the fireless-baked cake was lighter in texture and was browned more perfectly than the layer from the other stove. The gas consumption was 6 cubic feet, while that consumed by the other stove was 10½.

OVEN TESTS.

Marked saving of gas and labor was also shown in the baking and roasting operations. A very tough

of meat. Then the gas is shut off, the flue in the back of the oven being closed automatically at the same time by the action of the damper level. The meat is allowed to cook

OFFERS $1,000 ON SOLDIERS MEMORIAL

Will G. Gelvin Will Give This Sum Towards Building if Remaining $49,000 is Subscribed

MUST BE RAISED BY JULY 1

Batesville, Ind., March 17.—Through a letter published in the two local papers, Will J. Gelvin offers to give $1,000 toward the erection of a memorial building in Batesville in honor of the soldiers of the town and Laubery township who were in the service during the world war.

The conditions under which the contribution is to be made are that a building costing not less than $50,000 be erected and that definite plans for it be completed by July 1 of the present year and construction started by April 1, 1920.

The building is to be a combined town administration and community building, containing an auditorium for public gatherings.

GERMANS GIVE UP TO AVERT GREATEST BATTLE

Allies Planned to Deliver Super-stroke Against Huns on November 12.

The greatest battle of history was to have started on November 12, 1918.

That was the day set for a super-stroke by the allies.

To save themselves a crushing defeat the Germans surrendered—signing the armistice 24 hours before the dreaded blow was to fall.

This is the postwar revelation made by Paris Excelsior, which says:

"While furious fighting was going on in the north of France, the German general staff was preoccupied with its Alsace-Lorraine front. For more than a month they feared a surprise attack in this quarter.

"Through the secret service the Germans learned an important movement was under preparation by the allies on the Lorraine front. The concentration of masses of troops before Briey was reported to them. They learned that 600,000 men under command of Gen. de Castelnau were being got ready to leap forward and carry the war into German soil.

"The allied units were of picked divisions, and the Germans were paralyzed with fear. They were menaced by 3,000 cannons of all caliber along a 70-kilometer front. The allies were ready to sweep a path through the German line with 300 tanks waiting for the word.

"Against this mass of men and material the duke of Wuertemberg had only 25 inferior divisions, amounting to about 160,000 men and less than 1,000 guns.

"The German general staff was fully aware of the gravity of the situation. They understood the aim of the allies first to encircle Metz and then enter Lorraine and finally invade Rhenish Prussia.

"The German forces were disorganized, used up, played out.

"Then they learned November 12 was the day set for the attack. They found this out on November 6. The next day they asked for an armistice—and got it just in time to save their armies from complete disaster."

No Matter How Obstinate or How Contracted — Cured

When I say I can cure you, you can depend upon it, for I know from the successful results in thousands of similar cases to yours, just what I can accomplish. Grateful patients treated by me are constantly recommending others, and this is why I possess such a large practice.

Men! Women! If you do less than you should, on your farm, at your desk, or in your shop, you are in some way weak. If you can't accomplish all that you expect or hope for, you are the silent sufferer from some hidden disease that affects one or more of the important nerve centers of the body. These neglected or unknown conditions, are usually diseases of the Pelvic System, which reflexly act upon the organs of Elimination, digestion and the nervous system, which in turn has its influence on the brain. I have made a special study of the Nervous System and have perfected methods that will cure where ordinary methods have failed. I will give you a searching and thorough examination FREE, thus determining the exact location of your trouble.

BEAR IN MIND that I have in Indianapolis one of the most modern and thoroughly equipped offices in the state with a Specialist in charge who is ripe in years of experience, rich and mature in learning in his chosen work. ## A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

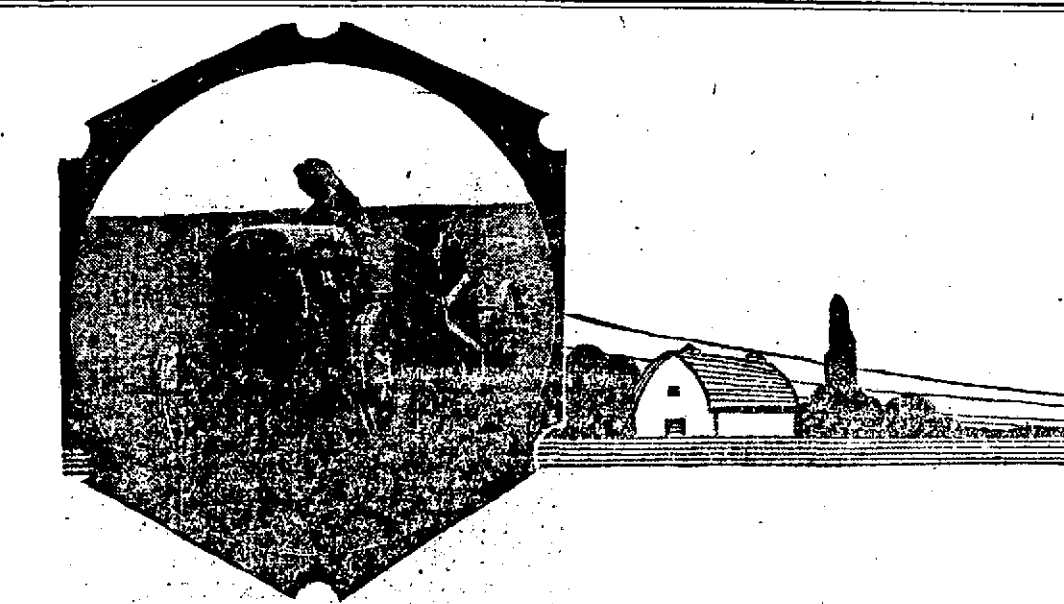

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Of course, you want a Fordson

THE Fordson is an ideal tractor for your farm. It is built compactly, simply, yet with abundant power. It pulls a two bottom plow and will do a proportionate amount of any other farm power work.

The Fordson engine is unusual. It is simple, easily cared for, and so designed that the farmer can give any attention required in service. The entire head of the cylinders, which are cast en bloc, can be removed for grinding valves.

The air is cleaned with an improved air washer. A special carburetor allows the use of kerosene—without any of the trouble that is commonly associated with this fuel.

The Oliver No. 7 plow in addition to being specially adapted to the Fordson tractor has all its well-known Oliver features. It buries the weeds and trash; it is operated from the driver's seat; the furrow is always kept at the same depth by a special stop device; in fact, it is an ideal tractor plow designed for that one purpose only.

See it here with the Fordson tractor.

160-acre Coplan ranch near Rosalia, Wash., and within a short time will begin "prospecting" for the complete skeleton of one of the largest mastodons ever unearthed. Parts of the skeleton have been located.

Porter Brothers, local contractors, have been engaged to do the excavation work and are awaiting favorable weather. This was the announcement made by W. S. Lewis, secretary of the museum.

E. A. Lindsley of the Lindsley Brothers company, in the Peyton building, and Porter Brothers will furnish the capital for the excavation work.

The farm, which has a low, boggy soil, has been the source of several mastodon bones unearthed in past years. There are several more skeletons bogged in the place, it is believed, and the one the Spokane museum hopes to recover complete will stand 14 feet high, with tusks extending about 10 feet from the jaws. This will equal in size the largest mastodon ever unearthed, which was found on this same farm in 1878 and now on exhibition in the Academy of Science in Chicago.

WILL SELL SMALL CRAFT

Shipping Board Will Dispose of One Million Tons of Vessels.

The United States shipping board has announced that it will dispose of more than 1,000,000 tons of vessels built to meet the demands of war. The ships to be sold will include 110 wooden vessels, 12 composite ships and many of the small steel cargo craft constructed to help supply the army in France.

The board has planned to employ the funds obtained from the sale for the construction of large steel ships designed for long-voyage hauling, which the American ships will be called upon to perform.

GIRLS HID ON TRANSPORT

Two Found on Troopship Which Brought 18 War Brides.

When the United States transport Louisville arrived at New York city from Brest her officers reported that, in addition to bringing brides of 18 American officers and privates, there were two, nineteen-year-old English girls on board who had stowed away in Liverpool and were not discovered until a week later.

Captain Hartley, commander of the Louisville, permitted the stowaways to remain in the cabin they had appropriated and to take their meals with the other women.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

SIDNEY E. MANNING,
Corporal, Co. G, 167th Infantry.

Corporal Manning received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry near Breuvannes, France, July 28, 1918. Corporal Manning was in charge of an automatic rifle squad during an assault by his battalion on the strongly fortified heights overlooking the Ourcq river for the purpose of exploiting the successful passage of the stream. During the advance on the hill his platoon commander was killed and just as the crest was reached the platoon sergeant was wounded. Corporal Manning then assumed command of the platoon, which was near the center of the assaulting line and was meeting with desperate resistance. Though he himself was severely wounded and was the only survivor of his squad, this soldier led forward the 35 effectives remaining in the platoon against an enemy strong point which was wired, entrenched and defended by machine guns and dominated the entire Ourcq valley. He was repeatedly wounded, but he succeeded in getting a foothold at this strong point with but seven men remaining with him. While the latter consolidated their position under his direction, with the platoon on the flank, he held off a considerable number of the enemy 50 yards away by fire from his automatic rifle. He remained in this position until the entire line had been consolidated, when he crawled back to shelter, having received nine wounds. Mrs. Linnie Manning, his mother, lives in Flomatin, Ala.

WEATHER FOR THE WEEK
Washington, Mar. 17—Temperatures above normal are indicated for the first half of the week, and normal thereafter. Frequent showers are probable.

If a woman is nervous or has dizzy spells, suffers from awful pains at regular or irregular intervals she should turn to a tonic made up of herbs, and without alcohol, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloes, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground.

Pearson, Mich.—"I have always found Dr. Pierce's medicine to be all that is recommended of them. I was in a nervous, run-down condition; also had stomach trouble very badly. I tried several doctors but they did not help me. A friend told me of the benefit she had received from Dr. Pierce's medicine. I quit the doctors and started taking 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and these medicines cured me completely. I can highly recommend them from actual experience."—Mrs. H. P. Lewis, 70 S. Jones St.
